Dear Mr President,

As I have so little time for the work I love, my humble birthday gift is late. This is more than a gift; it is an expression of my appreciation to your administration for the aid offered the "Little Fellows". A greeting from one New Yorker to another.

I know you have been painted by some of the best portrait painters in the country. If you will accept this effort of an insignificant Negro artist, I will feel that I have really made a start in this most difficult field. If it were possible to paint your face life I am sure the result would far surpass this one. Nevertheless I will be glad to have you accept this late gift.

My dear Mr. McIntyre:

A note has been received from the Japanese Ambassador requesting to be informed whether the President would find it agreeable to accept two cans of green tea which have been received at the Embassy from Mr. Yenichiro Nakamura, head of the Japan Tea Promotion Committee in Japan. In addition to his position with the Tea Committee, Mr. Nakamura is a Member of the House of Peers, and when in the United States in 1934 called at the White House on Mr. Early on August twenty-seventh for the purpose of presenting to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt a case of Japanese tea.

Ambassador Saito states in his note that he has received an additional twenty cans of green tea for distribution among the President's "official family", if agreeable.

I

The Honorable

Marvin H. McIntyre,

Assistant Secretary to the President,

The White House.

I see no objection to the President accepting the two cans of green tea offered to him personally. I doubt the wisdom, however, of accepting the additional twenty cans of tea for distribution among the President's "official family".

If you will advise me of the President's wishes in this matter, I shall be glad to communicate them to the Ambassador.

Sincerely yours,

William Phillips

MEMORANDUM FOR HON. WILLIAM PHILLIPS:

Dear Mr. Phillips:

I quite agree with your opinion about the propriety of the acceptance of Mr. Yenichiro Nakamura's tea by the "official family".

May I suggest that the matter be handled along that line, namely, that the President will be glad to accept the two cans of tea personally, but that the other be "sidetracked". I think we can reach this decision without bothering the President.

Mr. M. A. Le Hand
Secretary to the President
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Le Hand:

Your kind letter of the 19th instant, was indeed gratifying, to put it mildly. May I however, ask your kind indulgence to read the sentiments of my inner feelings and desires.

I fully realize that the President, receives great quantities of letters and gifts daily. But for one to expect a personal answer or acknowledgment to a letter or a gift, would be absurd. In my case however, I feel it to be different, for the reason that my token to the President, is not a photograph, etching or struck up in the ordinary and usual manner of tokens.

I accomplished my desired results of this composition, only after three months of undivided efforts and concentration with my (engraver's) tools, and so would greatly appreciate a personal acknowledgment from the President. I desire that this personal letter of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the President of these United States of America, to remain with my heirs, after my passing from this Earthly Stage. I do not only attach this great sentiment to a letter from the President, because he is the President of these United States of America, but also because of his greatness, as a Man.

I trust you will give my letter your valued consideration, I am

Very respectfully yours,

Charles Parriott

P. S. I truthfully assert and promise that there is no ulterior motive in my mind, such as publicising the desired letter of the President to commercial gain, but purely for sentimental reasons, as I have heretofore expressed.

President Roosevelt

When we first mailed these little donkeys out we did it for the fun of it....we had no idea there would be any AFTER interest to it at all. BUT acknowledgeents came in...interesting little letters of thanks for those we had favored...and our window displays of GOOD Democrats began to grow....and the windows became of interest to those passing....and became of GREAT interest to those who knew their Democrats. BUT we are not complete in our line-up...we can't be yet...we need a letter from you...got to have it...and we wonder....will you.....

Thank you,

Therefore I had this it would be fitting for the President either at Hannibal or in this county there be presented by ~~a committee of~~ one of his committee ~~from~~ to agriculture presented with a basket of choicest obtainable apples grown in this Pike county. I have for-this many bushels of my choicest crop to got best ones of this bad year

make such ~~a~~ presentation if it could be arranged.
It would strike a new note in his tour,
and boost an industry that has suffered more-what since the Hoover administration put new burdens and regulations on the business which our Congressman H.T. Rainey was hoping to abate to some degree. I was a candidate to succeed Mr. Rainey from this old district.

The fact that the gift would be from a minister - (I am a Baptist) - who did not vote for the President last time on account of my dissent with him on the wet-dry issue, but who rose because of the President's other marked measure of humanitarian and progressive nature and evidently for him to the last ditch, may make good publicity to counter act in this election year any defections of Baptists who have not enough vision to back him.

I may say that I am a member of the state Horticultural society and have taken pride at their shows, including this last one in this state. And that in enclosed white folder there I am Vice President of the American National Patriotic Society whose headquarters are at our county-seat Pittsfield. It is an organization with a big name which is little itself yet, but hopes to get larger. To identify myself further with I may say I was chairman of the united dry cru. of this county which won Vt. repeal by 1200 vote, and that local option notwithstanding rolled up bigger, dry majorities since. You might care to know also that for eight or nine years I have been a county officer for our eleven denominations in religious educational work, either as Council Secy, Vice Pres., or President. Hence I may not be wholly unrepresentative or irresponsible. Have been

As I have been one of the distressed and have no way of showing my appreciation to you, I have a Drum from the Civil War I would like you to have; it was beaten by my grandfather, Joseph Farr, and I am ill and do not expect to be here long. The drum is not in good repair as it has been in the family a long time and the cords are broken but it is a relic and I would like to send it to you somehow, if you would accept it. Is there some way you could let me know? I am on relief and I do not have the means to transport it but if you will accept it, I would feel better. I am situated in the county and it is inconvenient to get medical attention, and I am without teeth, so I don't seem to be able to pick up strength to get well. jimcrax...

It is with the utmost pleasure that I write this column for the Signal in lieu of Knock Knock Jim Crax.

I offer my sincere condolence to him, and my heartfelt felicitations to the great leader that Jimcrax has continually lambasted in this column.

I pause now to pay tribute to this great leader, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and thank our intelligent citizens for giving America the man of the hour.

No doubt but the readers of this column will not only be surprised but thrilled to read of the praise and respect that this column offers to this great humanitarian, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

It now becomes my joy to let you in a secret. Your columnist Jimcrax left town in a dilapidated and deflated car to go to Topeka to get a load of Sun Flower seed, and on his way he is to organize Landon Knox Roosevelt clubs.

Mind you my good readers, I do not and will not knock knock any one. But I would like for some of Jimcrax' friends to explain to the new dealers, one question. As you are aware Jimcrax has constantly knock knocked our great president, night after night in this column. You will also recall Jimcrax ran for the Republican County Central committee which office receives no emoluments but just the honor of being one of the boys in the machine, and to my utter surprise my good friend Jimcrax, the great exponent of Herbert and Alf, was left out in the cold, trailing far behind his less unfortunate ambitious opponents.

Jim why not be converted and put a trailer on that deflated delapidated car of your and bring back a load of donkeys instead of Sun flower seed.

Man, elephant or donkey can't eat Sun Flower seed and anyway, we haven't that many parrots in Southern California.

Vote for Mr. Roosevelt and relax.—Mr. Jimcrax.

My Dear Sir:

I am a country school teacher in South Dakota. While on my summer vacation, I helped a friend make donkeys. They are quite clever animals I think. I have been making several this fall and thought perhaps you would like one. If you do not care for one, I'm sure your little grandsons will. I am sending one to you. It is a good party advertiser.

Please keep this or at least my name from the papers. I do not care for the publicity, in fact I almost refrained from sending my name for that reason. So please keep my name from the papers etc.

From a friend and well wisher.

Dear Mr. President,

On the night of May 6, 1935, I did a performance for you and your family at the White house

As we were leaving the table, you asked me to make you a dulcimer, a duplicate of the instrument I had used to accompany myself. It seems like a long time to wait, but making a dulcimer is a slow business. I finished the instrument for you about three months ago, and you will find it attached to this letter with your initials inlaid in the fingerboard.

I think I may be credited with being a bit of a prophet because it has long been declared the

Dear Mr President:

So glad you liked the Dulcimer. On our return next summer we might stop off at Washington and show you how it goes. You might even like to play it. At least it looks well hanging on the wall.

The Inlay was made by two craftsmen at Brasstown N.C. and as they are also good Democrats, it would be terribly nice of you to write them about it....The first one is named Park Fisher, Brasstown N.C. and his assistant is named Tom Maclemore, Brasstown N.C...They made the Inlay and did the polishing....

Please accept my hearty congratulations on your re-election.

The enclosed chrysanthemums were grown in a greenhouse which is a recently finished WPA project, one of many fine practical improvements made possible in our City under the WPA. Numerous fine specimens of chrysanthemums were grown in this greenhouse, and the display was open to the public during the past week. It is estimated about twenty thousand persons visited the show.
