Dear Mr. Early:

filed PPT. 1

You wrote me on April 17 of last year that I might publish in a book a private letter which was written me some years ago by President Roosevelt. I have reproduced this letter of President Roosevelt in Possum Trot, recently issued by the University of Oklahoma Press. Today I am sending you a copy of that book for the President, whom I inscribe as a "Statesman for Possum Trot and the World." The letter as quoted "with permission" can be seen in the last section, which has the title "Possum Trot Papers." This work seeks in part to bridge the gap between our folk ways and our state ways, which seems important to me both in peace and in war. I trust that at some possible convenient time my little book can be brought to the attention of the President. I believe he will like its point and spirit as well as the picture on the jacket. It comes by express. ✓

Dear Mr President

Will you please accept this cigarette lighter which belonged to King George V. not only as a birthday present but as a token of my sincere appreciation of the much needed help
both you and the American people gave to England during her greatest hour of need.

I am now working on a plan
to obtain films and all the W.P.A.
American Guide Series so that at some later date I can go to England and lecture on this wonderful country and its people in the hope of creating a better understanding and a lasting friendship between our two great nations.

The lighter was given to King George during the last world war and remained on his desk until his death it was then given to my brother who had been in the king's services for 26 years and was given by him to me on my last visit to England in 1938.

of God continue to grant
you his help, thereby giving us
victory and a lasting peace.

I am,

Dear Mr. Roosevelt.

One morning in March 1939, I sat musing at the breakfast table, toying with the handle of my coffee cup, after a while, I noticed as I tilted the cup towards me the coffee dregs had been fashioned into a picture, so plainly was the picture, delicately depicted in a fine weblike tracery, I decided to copy it. I enlarged it about three times its size as it was only about two inches up and down. Then I placed the cup in a strawberry basket upside down and took it over to an artist friend and asked him to draw the picture he saw in the cup, both pictures were identical, excepting for the fact that my powerful imagination had placed the dots that formed the blaze at the top of the Egyptian flag had been missed by his practical draftmanship and the aura of dots forming the sun or earth whichever it could be described as was not in his copy. A little bear sitting at the left, I did not think to be essentially necessary as I was merely going to call it my coat of arms. As I had been trying to plan one in my mind for a couple of weeks and thought maybe it had been sent that way to me. But every three or four months as I take a look at that picture, it has more than ever become so real to me that it is a royal flush card for the United Nations. One night when I had finished the picture in class, I was thinking and the artist asked me what script I would place on the scroll at the bottom, I'm not quite ready to say yet, some Hebrew characters I replied.

The next two class evenings I just did not feel like going, Friday morning on opening my eyes, the picture

as a slide passed before my eyes and a sweet voice said
"Victory". So Victory in Latin it was.

It was then I really decided to take it seriously that the war had something to do with an Egyptian victory.
The lion waving the Egyptian Flag fastened to a flaming torch.
Then the scorpion rising from its coil on the calf's back,
The American Indian, pushing away the Japanese robe.
The calf or Taurus the Bull as Astrologers call it,
sitting above a chest with the rosetta stone attached which represents the first language of the world, is that right, is attached to a chest covered with a golden scarf representing the riches of the world.

I am not a medium astrologer or fortune teller, but a vision I had this morning gave me the idea this picture might interest you. Perhaps some one of a pensive nature might be able to interpret it to its full extent, perhaps Mrs. Roosevelt as she was born in the same month as I . March has a way of doing nice things for me.
This is very choice to me and if it does not interest you en closed are return stamps.

Sincerely I am,

Ethel Pritchard Nickerson

HELP LABOR DEFEND ITS OWN

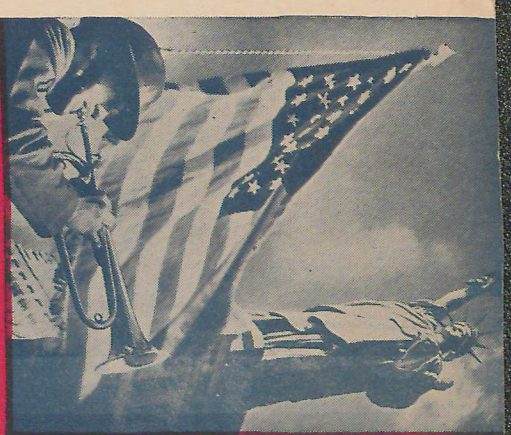

To aid needy workers and their families in the United Nations.

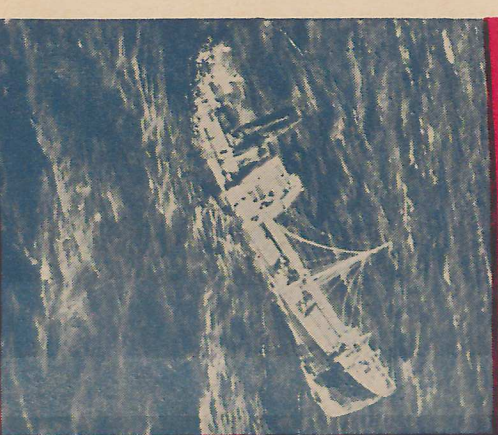

THEY GIVE LIFE AND BLOOD EACH DAY

WILL YOU GIVE JUST ONE HOUR'S PAY EVERY MONTH?

To aid our own CIO men in the armed forces and their families.

TO THE COLORS: For C.I.O. Men: here in the Armed Forces!

TORPEDDED: C.I.O. men overseas: C.I.O. men helped rebuild Pearl Harbor! were on this ship!

HERE WE ARE Volunteering for PEARL HARBOR

SHARE YOUR FREEDOM

THIS IS THE OFFICIAL C.I.O. PROGRAM

Many locals are already working an hour overtime each month for the CIO War Relief Fund. If your local cannot arrange to work an hour overtime, you can give the equivalent of an hour's pay a month.

THIS MONEY WILL BE USED TO AID:

Heroic workers, their families and children in the allied nations through funds distributed by international war relief agencies under the supervision of organized labor there.

CIO men in the armed forces here and abroad, and American workers and soldiers in hospitals and enemy prisons.

EVERY LOCAL MUST DO ITS PART

The Mandate of our Detroit Convention

"This National Committee will function to direct and coordinate campaigns to raise funds throughout the country to alleviate the misery of the workers and peoples of those countries fighting fascism and nazism."

From the resolution adopted at the 1941 CIO Convention.

President Murray Says:

"Please accept my contribution of $1,000 to the National CIO American and Allied War Relief Fund as a small part of what I expect will be a tremendous war relief chest that will aid our brother workers both here and abroad. I know every member of the CIO will do his part, large or small, to contribute regularly until this war is ended."

Dear Mr. President:

It has been an honor and privilege for the book department of the New York Herald Tribune to participate in the book promotion attendant to the United Nations on Flag Day.

x 282-a

We thought you might be interested in seeing some of the material we have prepared. In our Sunday Book Section of June 14 we are devoting the center spread to sixteen books that we and the publishers feel will bring a better understanding of our Allies and their problems.

Under separate cover we have sent you an enlargement of this advertisement, reproduced in color. This poster has been sent to practically every important bookstore in the United States -- at the suggestion of the American Booksellers' Association.

We wish to acknowledge the inspiration and help given us by Mr. Chester W. Kerr, of the Office of Facts and Figures.

We hope that our efforts have been in complete accord with what you desired from the book industry.

I am,

Respectfully yours,

Howard W. Cook
