Dear Colonel Howe:

Thank you very much for your prompt note of Dec. 19th acknowledging receipt of Vol. I No I of AMERICAN COLLECTOR. With this letter I am sending you the second issue. On page 10 you will find a brief story dealing with some of the silver made by 18th century members of the Roosevelt family.

Will you please bear in mind the fact that at some future date, when the demands on the President's time are less imperative, I would very much like the opportunity of talking with him briefly about his collections of prints and ship models and the relief which collecting offers him. All of this was outlined in the letter sent by Mr. Frank W. Chipman, Sandwich, Mass, President of the Early American Glass Club, under date of Dec. 15th.

Faithfully,

Dear Sir.

Inclosed please find one of our Grip On rubber telephone bases for use on dial telephones and the like.

Kindly accept it with our best wishes, place it on your dial telephone and see the difference while you dial for a number.

Would you be so good as to write us telling us just the comfort you receive , and how it holds the dial telephone in place.

E.Carnegie is our registered Trade name , but kindly address your letter to the writer.

We sure would like to equip all the dial telephones in the White House , as with our rubber base applied to the telephone it will not slide and skid all over the desk, and assures you of secureing the right number at all times.

Thanking you in anticipation.

PLS

My dear Sir.

Your letter of the 23rd received,stating reasons why it was impossible for The President to convey sentiments on Sidney Lanier's birthday (Poet born in Macon Georgia February 3 1842). I see from your statement that you are correct,and thank you for telling me the reason not being able to attend to# same on account of the many complex problems confronting him.

May I come to you and ask would it be acceptable for you to receive,and acknowledge, a most interesting small book "Aenas Africanus" by Colonel Harry Stillwell Edwards of Macon Georgia. May I state this small book contains the travels of an old negro who left the plantation of his master,and traveled over many southern states before finding his master. The work has passed the million mark in sales,going all over the United States and into nearly all the countries across the water. I will state that Colonel Edwards who lives here,is one of the old fashion writers of the type of Thomas Nelson Page,Paul Hamilton Haynes,Sidney Lanier and others. He is now writing and has been for several years on the "Atlanta Journal" (Atlanta Ga),contributing to the editorial page feature's three times a week,and at times writes editorials for said paper. His editorials backing President Franklin Roosevelt have been frequent and he is a most distinguished writer. Besides he (Colonel Edwards) is the only member from the South of "The American Academy of Institute of Arts and Letters".I merely mention these matters pertaining to Colonel Edwards to show his place in literature. He is doing all he can through editorials,and feature articles in the Atlanta Journal to carry through the policies of "Our President.".

If you would kindly accept this small book in behalf of the President I would be pleased to send you one with my compliments.Colonel Edwards does not know I am writing to you,but he is not only a great writer,but better still a Great American.If you desire references to him in Washington.D.C. I can refer you to Hon Harlee Branch who was formerly on the"Atlanta Journal",Hon Walter George#(my life long friend) United States Senator, and others.

Thank you for your time and patience,and rest assured would deeply appreciate a reply from you. WE ARE GOING TO CELEBRATE THE PRESIDENTS BIRTHDAY HERE IN MACON GEORGIA IN FINE STYLE .

Most sincerely.

Dear Mr. McIntyre: The Osborne Co. whom I represent in Washington submitted an oil painting with the idea that it might be used as a poster by N.R.A. — some one in authority asked that they be allowed to use it for the N.R.A. posters etc.

Knowing that the President was a collector of stamps, I thought possibly that he would like the original painting — under date of 7th inst, I wrote Mr. Stephen Early, that it would be a pleasure to present it. I know the President is much too busy to monkey with me. I ask no favors or publicity - for myself - At same time I know the President has been given everything in the world but a stained deal, and I guess that he has already given away a couple of warehouses full of junk. I haven't any idea whether such a painting would be prized by a collector - Isaac Lung - if Mr. Roosevelt really cares for it, it will be a great pleasure to lend it to you, and Yamoose, any time, at your convenience - On the contrary if he is ever attacked - well I was born in a cotton patch and will remain a Democrat - In other words, it will not hurt me.

Dear Mr. McIntyre:

On March 15th, I wrote you of a painting that I had from which the N. R. A. postage stamp was made, and a brief history of the printing. I knew that the President was a collector of stamps. I thought possibly that the original painting would be a novelty and a souvenir of the N. R. A.

I mentioned that if he would accept, I would be glad to present it. I jokingly said that I was not after a job, neither did I wish thanks.

Promptly came a letter from you, March 16th, to be exact, I thought that I recognized your signature. The next day when I gave you the picture you asked who it was from, what about it, etc.? I referred you to my letter, which you said that you would look up. I never heard any more of the picture.

Inasmuch as it was by a noted artist, who was paid a little in excess of a thousand dollars for his work, I trust that I will be pardoned for asking if in the rush it ever reached the President, or was stored with the other probable thousand and one souvenirs and gifts that doubtless clog the White House basement. I am presuming there's no attic.

With best wishes,

Yours very truly,

Champ Pickens.

Dear Friend:

I am writing to ascertain if our good President has read "Rational Evolution" by Robert Briffault, Macmillan Publishing Company, New York. And if he has not, I will be proud to furnish him a copy.

Briffault treats of the career of mankind from the beginning, filling new bottles with new wines. No great man, no scholar can afford to miss it.

Also to say that if the President has not a professional reader at his beck and call, it is high time that such be provided him. This drudgery can well be borne by less precious eyes. His mind will be freeer if some one else strings the words for him.

Yours very truly,

Forgotten G. O. P. Remembers Now

BY ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

The Republicans met yesterday in Chicago, like strawberries out of season.

The forgotten men got together to do a little remembering. They put themselves on record, like a traveling salesman signing a hotel register.

They are against the New Deal, cycles of depression, drought, regimentation of business. They are against the Roosevelt Administration from rudder to bowsprit.

Their declaration of principles reads like the back of an express company blank. For they are also opposed to earthquakes, floods and strikes, and are not responsible for acts of Providence.

All in all, it's a comprehensive survey. But ask Ely Culbertson what happens when you bid out of turn.

My dear Governor:--

This is the book I had promised sending to you a while back. A very remarkable biography, most of the selections parallel present conditions, history repeating itself. I was sure that you would enjoy reading it and as there were no more copies available here in the States, it was necessary for me to send abroad, which accounts for this long delay.

I am also taking the liberty of enclosing some snap shots taken this week-end of your correspondent and friends. Dear Mr. President:

Knowing of your great interest in the problem of rehabilitating the Virgin Islands and in the welfare of the people of these Islands, and in the development of Virgin Island industry, our firm, who are the exclusive American representatives and distributors of OLD ST. CROIX RUM, a Virgin Islands product, and which is making the first importation of Virgin Island rum into the United States proper, wishes to offer you as the Chief Executive of our country the first case of OLD ST. CROIX RUM to be imported into this country since the Virgin Islands became an American possession.

We feel that the first importation of the Virgin Islands' chief industry marks an epoch in the industrial history of the Virgin Islands, and we are honored to be the first importers of Virgin Island rum, and especially OLD ST. CROIX RUM which has enjoyed world renown for almost a century prior to Prohibition as one of the finest rum products produced anywhere.

The first shipment will arrive in the United States on or about June 27, 1934.

If the President will honor us by signifying his acceptance, the first case of OLD ST. CROIX RUM to be unloaded from our ship will be forwarded immediately upon arrival.

My Dear Mr Roosevelt;

I am an Armenian by birth, and was naturalized American citizen in December, 1928. Naturally my first opportunity to participate in a Presidentidl Vote was in November 1932, and, I am glad to State that I cast My vote for the "New Deal".

Needless to say, I am proud of the fact that I am a citizen of a commonwealth where democracy and freedom of press and Speech are still sacred and are cherished by free and liberty loving people.

Prior to march 4, 1933, this beautiful country of ours was in a desperate plight. The prolonged Economic depression had dejected every one alike. Millions of people, because of lack of employment were living a life of mere existance. Despair was seen upon the face of every citizen. The future was dark.

Your inaugural address on that memorable day Sincere brightened the horizon of hope. There was no doubt as to your determination to tackle the difficult problems ahead. It was the case of a competent Surgeon who was to perform a delicate operation upon a patient about to die.

You Courageously performed that operation and Saved the patient. All this means one thing: Sincere and Courageous administration for the good of the Masses. It is the masses who look to you for the betterment of their condition. They do not want riches. All they want is the right to live like humans as befits the civillization of this United States.

It is because of this belief that the masses are for you and behind you. The criticism and faultfinding does not come from them. They feel that you are their representative and and Champion against all odds.

As one of the common people and your humble admirer, to the best of my ability. I have made a likeness of you in a pencil drawing with the Symbols of the new deal as a memorial to your efforts and accomplishments.

Please, Sir, accept this Small token of admiration from one who prays and wishes for the Success of your administration. May you be guided by the Grace of God.

I am Sir, very respectfully yours

Mr. President:

To the great honor of our kind hearted President. He has great honor and much power. At thy will, I would fall at they feet for mercy for a little help to restore my home which was lost by fire. One home lost and all I had, May 28, 1932, caught from a flue.

I moved to Beech Creek, where I owned a house and went there to winter. After doing all I could to get a little start, fire broke out on January 16, 1934 and I lost this home and all I had in it. This left me without a home and not a dollar to help to build one.

I am an old man of 70 years of age and am badly crippled, and in bad health. I have a family depending on me for a home and support. We hardly get enough for our bread.

I am sending you a jenuine Sugar Tree stick which is a great curiosity here. It is all I have to present to you that it may find some favor in return for me and my family. We should like some sort of comfortable home in which to spend our last days. Wishing you a long life and much success and happiness.

Very truly yours,

J.D.Owen, Beech Creek, Ky.

My father died when I was 12 years old and left me to take care of his family as best I could. After taking care of them for about 30 years, I came to Kentucky and married a widow with four children. We worked and saved and bought a farm. I still owe $300.00 on this farm.

As to the truth of these statements you may write to:
Mr. J. F. Hays, Rochester, Kentucky.

This stick has been seen by a great number of people who says they never saw one like it anywhere. This stick was found on the bank of Panter Creek on May 1934 by Mr. J. D. Owen. He is sending this stick to our great President who may find some use for it. This cane is a fine grain Sugar tree wood, only bark and limbs removed , as you see.

Hoping you will remember me and my family in my condition, and do according as you feel.

MEMORANDUM for Mr. Burlew

There is enclosed the book "Sky Determines" by Dr. Ross Calvin, which was sent to President Franklin D. Roosevelt by Mr. John C. O'Leary of the Silver City Enterprise. This was sent here with clippings from the Silver City Enterprise with a letter presumably to be read by some member of the Soil Erosion Service.

The book is very well written and is an excellent compilation of information on the physical factors conditioning the habitation of the southwest as well as information on the history and development of that region. Reading of this book will be useful to any one to understand conditions and problems of the southwest region.

It is assumed that this book is to be transmitted to the President for his library.
