Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt
Washington, D. C.

Honored Sir:

We are taking the liberty of sending you under separate cover, for your perusal, the following: a copy of the book "Trinity! Break Ye My Commandments?" by Willis T. Gridley, an excerpt from the Senate Journal of the State of Michigan, part of the farewell message of Governor Hazen Pingree, and a copy of the "Appeal for Justice."

All of these have a bearing on the case before the U. S. Federal Court, Eastern District, Michigan in which Willis T. Gridley, and Mrs. Gladys Wright were convicted of using the mail to defraud. These people are now serving their sentences in Leavenworth, Kansas and Alderson, West Virginia, five and four years respectively.

We, as the people who were supposed to have been defrauded, cannot see how these two people can be guilty of the alleged crime, in the face of the fact that we all signed a pledge, or agreement, with the expressed purpose that this was to be an organization formed solely for the publication of this book, "Trinity! Break Ye My Commandments?".

We are appealing to you for an unbiased, Federal investigation of this entire case, basing the plea on the facts as set forth in these books and records. We have the original court records in our possession, also the briefs pertaining to the Appeals, and will be only too glad to co-operate in any way we can.

We fully realize that there are many duties that you have to attend to, but are humbly asking that in the name of right and justice you give this your consideration, and let us have an investigation of the entire case.

Very respectfully,

H. R. Rocklington

My dear Mr. Popick:

General Martin has called to my attention an oversight on our part in not conveying to you the President's thanks for the bronze Holy House and parchment scroll, which was dated March 4, 1933.

I well recall presenting these items to the President. He was very much delighted with them, and complying with his request at the time, we had them sent down to Warm Springs to join his collection. You may be sure that the President appreciated your thoughtfulness.

Dear McIntyre:-

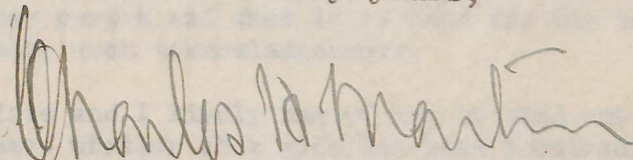

I am enclosing a self-explanatory letter, with attachments, which I received from Aaron Popick, 18 S.W. Hall street, Portland, Oregon, who seems quite hurt that acknowledgment was not made of the bronze Holy House and parchment scroll which he thoughtfulness sent to The President a year ago.

If it is not asking too much, would it be possible for you to write to Popick and explain matters as to where the Holy House now is? Please inform me of your action.

Representative Charles H. Martin

Honored Sir:

In March of 1933, I sent to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, a bronze Holy House, together with a parchment scroll, as a blessing to him. Enclosed please find a miniature photostat copy of the scroll, and a photostat copy of my personal letter to President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

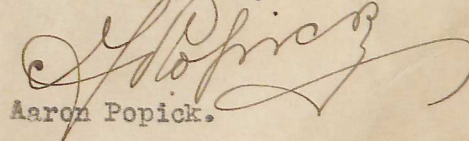

To date I have received no acknowledgement that the gift was received, and I am greatly disturbed for in the Holy House was enclosed a miniature Holy Scroll, which is the 5 books of Moses; Presidentx Roosevelt's name is engraved on the Holy House and there are other holy emblems, which are too holy to be placed in the corner of some warehouse or store room.

I am perfectly satisfied if the President has received this gift, even though I have received no acknowledgement, as I realize that the President has been a very busy person and that it is hard for him to spare his valuable time to make such acknowledgements.

I would greatly appreciate and I kindly ask of you to find out through whatever means you have whether this gift has been received. This gift is a sincere blessing not only from an American citizen but from an Oregonian, and it is my desire that President Roosevelt receive my blessing.

May I at this time congratulate you on winning the democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Sincerely yours,

Aaron Popick.

TO THE FIRST MAN AND LADY OF OUR LAND:

Under separate cover you will receive a HOLY HOUSE, which is being sent you by an admirer who resides almost three thousand miles from the seat of our government. This handiwork of Mr. Aaron Popick is a meager indication of the admiration, blessing and hope of the senders, for the welfare of your honored selves. Accept this gift with the spirit that it has been sent. May the emblematic symbolism thereof bring pleasant thoughts to your minds, and be of assistance in inspiring a medium of light for a darkened world.

Most respectfully yours,
MR. and MRS. AARON POPICK.

Dear Mr Roosevelt,

Although I am informed that you possess the finest naval library in the United States, I am taking the liberty of sending along the latest edition of "Fighting Ships" in the hope that you have not already added a copy to your shelves.

Will you please do me the honour of accepting the book, which carries with it a very deep sense of gratitude for your recent escape and every good wish which type can convey. You have had to go straight into action without even doing a "shake-down" cruise first, but on this side there is every confidence in your ability to clew things up all ship-shape and Bristol fashion.

And may you be granted the good health and happiness which can make success sure.

Believe me to be,

Your sincere admirer,

My dear Mr. President:

Under separate cover I am sending you with my compliments a copy of THE ENCHANTED SWORD, a story of mine with a Frisian-Dutch setting. The book has in it a bit of the tang of the sea-- of which, I am informed, you are fond.

If it is not an imposition upon your kindness, I would like to ask the following favor: I am writing a brief article descriptive of the old Dutch 'Staten bybel.' Newspapers reported that a copy of this bible has been in the possession of the Roosevelt family for a long time, and that you were planning to make use of this bible at the time of your taking the oath of office.

I would like very much to have an opportunity to examine this bible-- more particularly its title page and two passages in its text. I shall be able to come up at any time-- morning, noon or night-- as this may suit your wishes.

Wishing you herewith a very successful administration, I have the honor to remain most sincerely yours,

Respetable señor:

No voy a tratar de presentarme con adornos que por demás no son sino figuras decorativas del individuo; mas la verdadera importancia del que se cree ser justipreciado está en hacerse conocer por los hechos i no por palabras que no tienen otro objeto sino de enriquecer las mentalidades que se infiltran de multitud de proyectos sin que estos tengan feliz realización i que el único fin que llenan es i será siempre, el caudal demagógico; fatal punto en que se caracterizan casi la mayoría de los actuales gobiernos de los Estados Latinoamericanos.

El objeto de ésta es, Señor Presidente, pedirle un gran favor, quien sabe, con el transcurso del tiempo, de magna importancia i de magníficos resultados, consiste en que me preste su incondicional protección que en síntesis sería ~~esta~~: sostenerme como si fuera su hijo, mantener mi educación i si cree conveniente, hacer que me convierta en ciudadano - yanqui, no encontraría obstáculo; i mis deberes serían ~~estas~~: ofrecerle ciega obediencia, trabajar a su lado en lo que crea que este expedito i constituir su orgullo.

LEARNING RECENTLY OF YOUR INTEREST IN CURRIER & IVES PRINTS, AND BEING UNABLE TO SECURE ANTIQUES ANY MORE IN THIS SECTION OF THE COUNTRY, IT HAS OCCURRED TO ME THAT THE THREE I NOW HAVE
SHOULD BE MADE A PART OF A COLLECTION SUCH AS YOURS.

THE ONES I HAVE ARE:- "THE WASHINGTON FAMILY," SEATED AROUND A
TABLE, BY CURRIER & SONS; PRESIDENT Z. TAYLOR AND VICE PRESI-DENT M. FILLMORE, BY CURRIER & IVES; AND WASHINGTON PASSING
THE BRIDGE AT TRENTON ENROUTE TO HIS INAUGURATION AS FIRST PRESIDENT, BY CURRIER & IVES.

IF YOU DO NOT HAVE THESE, MAY I ASK THAT YOU HONOR ME BY ACCEPT-
ING THEM? I CAN EITHER FORWARD BY POST, OR DELIVER IN PERSON
ON MARCH 25TH WHEN IN WASHINGTON TO SEE SENATOR PITTMAN.
THESE SHOULD BE GOOD DEMOCRATIC PRINTS BY THIS TIME, MR. PRESI-DENT, AS THEY HAVE BEEN IN OUR FAMILY MANY YEARS, AND ONE BE-LONGED TO MY UNCLE, WILLIAM F. PACKER, DEMOCRATIC GOVERNOR OF THIS STATE. I TRUST THAT THEY WILL BE ACCEPTABLE TO YOU, AND THAT I MAY KNOW YOUR PLEASURE BEFORE STARTING EAST.

IT MAY PLEASE YOU TO KNOW THAT MY POLITICAL ORGANIZATION GAVE
YOU A VERY SUBSTANTIAL MAJORITY LAST NOVEMBER - THE FIRST TIME
THIS TOWN HAS GONE DEMOCRATIC IN OVER THIRTY YEARS.

WISHING YOU A FULL SHARE OF THE HEALTH AND STRENGTH NEEDED FOR YOUR MIGHTY TASK, AND ASSURING YOU OF THE LOYALTY OF YOUR FOLLOWERS HERE, I HAVE THE HONOR TO BE

March 13 1933.
To our loving president "Franklin D. Roosevelt."

I am sending this portrait to the man of action. I heard your inaugural speech, and I unanimously consider it the most heart gripping speech I ever heard. We the people of the United States, under your leadership—pronounce the depression will be broken. I am eighteen yrs. of age, and hope some day to paint your portrait personally. I have had no art education, what I know has been gifted to me by "God." My father is a carpenter, and has a family of 10 children. We are all unemployed, and we are in the midst of misery. But as I said before, we have confidence in you, and we have high spirits, are fresh of mind. I hope you can help me to secure an art education, I will appreciate it heartily. Our family is entirely Democrat, we sincerely hope that in future years, our country will—will be safe and sound under men like you. I wish you health and happiness to your family, and to your administration.

May God guide you through your labors of the day. And may this Lincoln slogan remain intact, we the government, of the people, by the people, for the people - shall not perish from the earth. I

Dear President -

at the time of your election - I sent congratulations to you, and received your very kind acknowledgement of same - which naturally made me very happy.

I have been unusually interested in the whole affair - Convention - nomination - Election and Inauguration - and can truthfully say - that in all my 51 yrs. of life - I never fully realized how impressive a ceremony this really was - until I heard the inauguration ceremonies by radio - which came in perfectly at the time.

I believe I followed you step by step from 9³⁰ A. M. until 2¹⁵ P. M. having arranged my duties - so I would have no interference.

I had wanted to write at the time - but I held back - with the thought that I may be making a nuisance of myself - which of course I do not want to do - but when I see and hear of all the wonderful things you have accomplished during your short time in office - I just cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude to you.

You have gone even beyond the expectations of the people - and from what I hear - everybody is with you.

On March 17th I heard by radio that you and Mrs. T. D. Roosevelt were celebrating your 28th anniversary of marriage - and it struck me as rather a coincidence - as it also was my 33rd anniversary of marriage - so I decided to write and send you both my heartiest congratulations and best wishes - along with a little gift - ^{fancy cover} as a token of high esteem - and I sincerely hope you may accept it as cheerfully as I give it.

I wish to say - that while we appreciate everything you do for the good of the nation - no one, I am sure would want you to forget yourself and your health - so please remember - as you are concerned in our welfare - so also are we, as a nation concerned for your welfare.

Will bring my letter to a close - with my very best wishes to you and your entire family.

May "God" bless you - keep you - protect you and guide you.

This is my sincere wish for you - and I beg to remain -

Very respectfully -
Mrs. H. J. Pauls.
