My dear Mr. President:

I have made this pencil sketch of you from one I recently saw. It is not a tracing. I am fourteen years old and I am very much interested in drawing, although I have had no instructions along that line. I'm one of your most ardent admirers. I am, dear Mr. President,

May 31st, 1934.

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt
President of the United States
The White House, Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. President:

My very good friend Mr. John A. Previtali of Jackson, California, has asked me to forward to you the box of early California cherries from his ranch, which you will receive with this letter.

He has brought into an excellent state of cultivation a very wonderful property near this city. It is entirely dry farming and his very hard work over a period of years has brought him excellent results. We are all very proud of him here; and while California has many great fruit producing centers this county is essentially a gold mining community; therefore his success in this locality is doubly noteworthy.

He wishes to express his great appreciation of you and for your great work and he trusts that this small token will be enjoyed by your family and yourself and will convey in a small measure his great respect and admiration for all of your efforts for the people of our nation.

Respectfully yours,

Harold V. Tallon

441 WEST TWENTY-FIRST STREET

New York, July 29th. 1933.

Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the U. S. of America.
Hyde Park N. Y.

Excellency,

Sometime last February Miss. Margaret Woodrow Wilson, wrote to Mrs. Roosevelt asking in my behalf the favor to have your Excellency pose for me for a few minutes to put finishing touches on a bust I was making from photographs.

The answer from Mrs. Roosevelt was that she would take the matter up later in Washington.

Being conscient of how immensely busy your Excellency has been in Washington, I have not dared to make any advance, so I have been waiting patiently, and watching with keen interest the historic events evolved in Washington while now and then putting a few touches to the bust, which now is to the point when a few touches from life which are so necessary can finish it.

I would deem it a great privilege to have your Excellency grant me the favor to let me bring the bust near where you are, in any little corner, in an out building or porch, where I can have the opportunity to get a good look at you once in a while and go to work by myself, and then finally have ten minutes of pose for the final life touches.

It is my intention and for the first time in my career to popularize this bust giving it to the public in standard bronze just at a little above the cost, thus democratizing art.

I was born in Italy 51 years ago, I came to this country in 1911 and became a citizen in 1920. I have many works to my credit public and private including two war memorials, but my specialty is portraiture which is noted for its life and character.

Pardon my taking the liberty to send your Excellency a little plaque of Pres. Wilson made recently from a photograph, please accept it as a little token of my great esteem and admiration.

Hoping for a favorable reply,

I am yours respectfully

President wrote Aug. 20, thanking for pictures, stating his trip to Hawaii, etc. was most delightful, and sent regards to Mrs. Gonzalez and himself.

I am enclosing for your attention a letter which has just come to me from Mrs. Fay G. Peabody, Beverly Court Apartments, Vancouver, Washington, in my district. There is also attached publicity which appeared in the Portland Oregonian News, which is self-explanatory.

While I realize that our President has numerous weighty problems to occupy his attention, I would appreciate, however, if a letter could be prepared for his signature and sent Mrs. Peabody. I have written this lady today to the effect that this matter was being referred to your personal attention, and stating that doubtless, failure to send her the letter in accordance with the promise of Chief MacSwain, of the Secret Service, at Portland, must have been due wholly to misunderstanding. I further stated that the President is known for his graciousness in matters of this nature and that he would be eager to make personal acknowledgement of this lady's gift.

I will appreciate being advised as to what action is taken by you.

With kind personal regards and best wishes,

Bakes for Roosevelt

In the larder as President Roosevelt's special train speeds eastward is a green apple pie, baked by Mrs. Fay G. Peabody, of Vancouver, shown above, official apple pie baker of the northwest. Accompanied by letters of greeting from Govs. Meier and Martin, the pie was placed aboard the train at Portland Friday. Adding an historic touch to the pie was an apple from the oldest tree in the Pacific northwest, which stands on the grounds of Vancouver barracks. Other apples from Oregon and Washington orchards were blended into the pie to give the president a truly representative dish.

GREEN APPLE PIE TO BE HONORED ON WEDNESDAY

To celebrate the establishment of the apple industry in the Pacific northwest and popularize a dish that affords a market for thousands of boxes of apples every year, "Green Apple Pie Day" will be observed Wednesday throughout the northwest, with the focal point of the celebration at Vancouver, Wash.

A committee of the Vancouver chamber of commerce, co-operating with Mrs. Fay G. Peabody, official apple pie baker of Oregon and Washington, has arranged a luncheon at the Evergreen hotel, to be preceded by a pie-cutting ceremony under the oldest apple tree in the northwest. Delegations from Portland, Yakima, Hood River, Wenatchee, Tacoma, Seattle and Olympia are expected to attend.

Invitations have been extended to Govs. Meier and Martin and other officials of the two states. Mayor Joseph K. Carson, Jr., and representatives of the Portland chamber of commerce will be present, according to the celebration committee, of which Foster Hidden is chairman.

The old apple tree, grown from seed planted by Hudson Bay men in 1826, will be bedecked in flowers for the occasion.

I am enclosing a note to him tied to the donkey which you may give him if you think best, otherwise just say I sent it with every good wish and that I hope he will enjoy it, for I adore bronzes of things I like and I do get so much enjoyment out of "other peoples" or should I say other sculptors work that I am always wishing every one might have the same enjoyment.

I found that the bronze would not be finished until after I was on my way to my son's school at Valley Ranch, Wyoming and I wanted to see that the patina was good before sending it on. When I returned I found the

Dear Miss. Li'Hand -

As I heard nothing from you about the patina of the donkey which I "sculpted", I went ahead and ordered what I think will be best, for the President.

But now I find it will not be finished until after I leave this Sunday, by motor, to get my son who is at Valley Ranch School, Valley, Wyo. I think we will not return before July 15th so I am having the Bronze sent here, when finished as I wish to see if it is satisfactory.

Will you let me know how he wishes it to be sent him? Of course I'd adore giving it to him but I know that would take his valuable time even tho it would take but five minutes - At any rate, you let me know and I can either bring it or send it to Hyde Park or Washington - I think he, too, will be away on his Cruise, but I do not know when he returns -

My dear Mrs. Park:

Your letter of recent date to Mrs. Roosevelt has been handed to me for reply. The President was much interested in the picture of your "plaster" donkey and thoroughly appreciated what you had to say in regard to it. He has asked me to tell you that he would love to have this interesting model, and wants you to know that he is most grateful for your offer to present it to him.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt-

Several months ago I modelled a funny little Donkey here in Katonah and I wanted to see if the Jury would accept it at the Architectural League Show in New York this month.

The Jury has recently written me he has been accepted.

I have wondered if the President would like to have him (as a gift of course) for his desk. He is not too large for a desk.

I know the President is too busy to ask and I know you are probably bothered with a great many duties thrust upon you, for that very reason, but I am sending under separate cover

a picture of him -

I am coming to Washington
during the week of May 12th to 19th
to visit Capt. C.A. Bonwillian's family and if you think the President would care for it I could leave it at the White House.
It would be in plaster and if he will accept it as a gift I shall be only too glad to have a bronze, any color
he would like, made of it

I model mostly animals and have worked at Ringling's Circus for several years as well as at Bronx Park etc and I model dogs and horses - It is my hobby and I enjoy it very much and if I can have others enjoy my work

NAVY. Act

de Zapp, Rudolphe,
Washington, D. C.,
Aug. 29, 1934.

Encloses clipping "Table Gives Protection to President's Seal". Wishes to bring this to the President's attention as he does not want Jouett Shouse and his disciples to have the privilege of proclaiming to the world that the President of the U.S. has no regard for his official seal and even permits people to walk and trample on it. Asks the President if he doesn't think that the floor is not the proper place for the emblem in question.

The President replied Sept. 5th that the seal was put there in T. R.'s time and has been walked on ever since, however is asking the Fine Arts Com. for an unofficial opinion. Is very appreciative of the prints that de Zapp has sent him.

Letter from Charles Moore, Commission of Fine Arts, Sept. 11th in reply to Mr. Forster's letter of Sept. 6th. Encloses memo. in response to the President's request as to information concerning the President's Seal in the floor of the White House.

Letter of Sept. 8th, from Mr. de Zapp -- Suggests the use of emblems on public buildings, in and out, symbolizing America, and to eliminate those Greek and Roman decorative schemes which have absolutely no connection with American mentality.

September 12, 1934

Writes President that under separate cover, he is forwarding a box containing an album of photographs which were received from the Commandant of the 14th Naval District for delivery to the President. The pictures were taken by Tai Sing Loo, the official photographer of the Navy Yard, and are of the President's recent trip to Hawaii. Wants album to be accepted by President and Mrs. Roosevelt. President wrote Sept. 24, thanking for forwarding the gift, stating he's perfectly delighted to have this pictorial record of a visit to Hawaii, and asks him to convey to the Commandant and photographer his appreciation for such a thoughtful kindness.
