Dear Sir:-

In looking over some of my curios I found two which I thought would interest you, so I am sending same.

The first is a copy of the Whitehall Times published after Clevelands' first election. Mr. Wilkins, the Editor at that time claimed to be the first one to mention Cleveland for Pres.

Hoping these two items will interest you I remain Yours Respectfully

printed in red, and containing apt sayings. Am sorry the paper is in no better condition.
The second article is a fan
with the pictures of the heroic
of the Spanish-American war.
I have been a life-long Democrat
but with the political complexion of this State (Vt.) the State-Officers are filled mainly by Republicans and on account of the National Committee man from this State, being Irish, most of the appointive offices are filled by Catholics

And also accept this ~~poster~~ I have drawn, if shown in the news papers it may make up some people to the neccessity of every living person in America, that if we want to win we must unite, like we would in any great battle.

pardon writing on both sides of paper I am just a little short at present.

I have a number of posters drawn and would be glad to send them if you think they would be of any material good in this fight against infantile paralysis they arent posters by any artists but they do get the point over.

I seem to be repeating myself over and over on a few points, but I am sincerely glad of this opportunity to address a letter of some significance to the President of these United States.

Yours Truely.
