Dear Sir:

Knowing deep in my heart how much you will appreciate this water color miniature of your dear friend and ally Mr. Churchill, I have taken the liberty of making and dedicating to you this portrait of the illustrious British Premier.

Please accept this portrait, Mr. President, as a token of my deepest gratitude for all you have done in the past, and doubtless you will continue doing for the good of the progress, happiness and the commonweal of my beloved Puerto Rico, and as a tribute of admiration for the desperate effort that you and the Allied Nations are making to rid the world from the grasping clutches of modern Vandals, bent on destroying the blessings of Democracy.

Wishing you and yours a Merry Christmas and a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year, I have the honor to remain.

Very respectfully yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE FILES
Jan. 29, 1944.

Request of Commander J. L. Wilfong, Commanding U.S.S. Lang, and Rodger W. Simpson, Commander Destroyer Division fifteen, USS Lang, Flagship, for replace of the President's photograph which was damaged when the USS Lang was attacked, together with a new Harris and Ewing Photograph of the President inscribed "To the Captain & Officers of U.S.S. Lang, my escort ship, Aug. 1939, Franklin D. Roosevelt. To replace the photo damaged in battle, 1943 FDR," returned to Admiral Brown. - - -Attached - Memorandum to the Commanding Officer, U.S.S. Lang dated Nov. 9, 1943, from Admiral Wilson Brown stating that the battle-damaged photograph of President Roosevelt forwarded by the Commanding Officer, U.S.S. Lang (DD599) has eventually reached the White House. The President directs Admiral Brown to send his thanks for sending him this memento of one of the brilliant naval actions of the Pacific and for the thought that prompted sending it to him. Further states that the battle-scarred photograph with its mounting will be added to the President's Library at Hyde Park. In conclusion states a replacement is forwarded herewith.

You may like this little souvenir of 103 years ago,and find a place in your museum for it. I thought of sending it in 1940 but failed to do it,so make good now.

A conversation among three rather strong republicans in this mountain resort town with many of that party in it was repeated to me,and it went like this:

One;"Well Mr.Roosevelt gets on very well with the foreign nations."

Another one;"Yes,and he is a gentleman."

A Third "Of course,and we will never be ashamed of him."

I chuckled over that,and believe you will. My sympathy and best wishes and the compliments of my family--about seven of whom are in the services--one a "missing" in the Philippines, one a prisoner in Rumania,the others, young officers in various war theatres.

We can hardly believe that a year has gone by
Since we last sent our greetings to you.

The fellow who started the saying "Time Flies"
Made a statement that's certainly true.

This season we'll wish you the usual good cheer,
Good Health and Prosperity rare.

Then pause for a moment in serious thought,
And offer this short little prayer.

We pray for cessation of all war and strife,
And pray that our country will be,
A victor in war and a victor in peace,
A great land in a world that is free.

We pray for an end to tyrannical might,
And of prejudice, hatred and fear.

We pray for a century of peace and good will,
A safe world for our loved ones so dear.

We pray for a Christmas of laughter and joy,
A season of good will and mirth.

When everyone's motto is brotherly love,
Good will towards men, Peace on Earth.

Il lavoro è stato eseguito riproducendo la foto qui acclusa, su lamina dello spessore di un millimetro circa.

La lamina viene largamente abbozzata, a sbalzo, dalla parte posteriore, indi poi la figura è minuziosamente cesellata.

Il lavoro, che resta unico quale modello, non può essere riprodotto con lo stesso procedimento, ma soltanto a mezzo di fusione.

L'arte della cesellatura a sbalzo (repoussé) era in pieno fulgore all'epoca greca e nel Rinascimento. Ora è in decadenza.

Dear Mr. President:

May we respectfully draw to your attention the publication of Lt. A. C. Denison's AMERICA'S MARITIME HISTORY on March 10th.

The material for this book was prepared as the substance of a series of lectures delivered to the officer candidates of the U. S. M. S. Officers' School, Fort Trumbull, New London, Connecticut by Lt. Denison. These lectures served to supply the men with a background essential for one rising from the status of an unlicensed seaman to that of a ship's officer.

In addition to the main idea, the lectures were designed to help define the loyalty of the men -- to acquaint them with the important part shipping had played and will play in the development of this country and to express and emphasize the interdependence of Merchant Marine and Navy.

This is a book in which we feel you will especially be interested.

Respectfully yours,

Adine Travis

Denison. These lectures served to supply the men with a background essential for one rising from the status of an unlicensed seaman to that of a ship's officer.

In addition to the main idea, the lectures were designed to help define the loyalty of the men -- to acquaint them with the important part shipping had played and will play in the development of this country and to express and emphasize the interdependence of Merchant Marine and Navy.

This is a book in which we feel you will especially be interested.

Respectfully yours,

Adine Travis
