My dear Dr. Quedenfeldt:

Your letter of December seventh has been received and I want to thank you in the President's behalf for your courtesy in writing. You may be sure the solicitous interest which prompted you to send the product to which you refer, is deeply appreciated.

I need hardly say that this gift can be accepted only with the understanding that there will be no publicity in connection with its presentation.

Very sincerely yours,

DR. PAUL QUEDENFELDT
Dentist

NEW YORK

To the President of the U. S. of America
Washington D.C.

Dear Sir

I have heard with great regret of your infection of the jaw bone.
I have used a Liniment consisting of the following ingredients: for over 30 years and never had to scrape
the bone for necrosis of dry socket

1/2 pint of Myrror:

1/2 of anise

oil of cloves

oil of cinnamon

1/2 each root crocodad

I am sending in 1 small bottle
of this remedy.

The dentist must use it freely in the socket and nurse after 24 hours
the sediment with warm sterilizing water - and renew the application without bandaging the wound.

In a few days granulation will set in and everything will be in perfect condition.

I have this method from Hofrat C. Wall in Samshadt. the dentist to the Grand Duke of Meissen. I have used it in Paris with very remarkable results - an Indian Prince - wanted me to go to India - and he his dentist but I like the old U. S. 9 better.

My master I have cured necrosis in some very remarkable cases. I have the X Ray of all these cases - and can prove it.

I hope Mr. President you will understand the right spirit in which I address myself to you - for I certainly admire you and all your very good deeds.
Very respectfully.

TO: Hon. Marvin McIntyre

FROM: Oliver A. Quayle, Jr.

I have been repeatedly pressed by Charles J. Reid, of the Reid Publishing Company, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, with regard to Donkey Banks -- a matter about which the National Committee could have no particular interest. He has requested on numerous occasions that I send one to the President.

So that I can honestly tell him, once and for all, that I have sent one of these Banks for the President's attention, I hand you herewith one of these delightful specimens.

Kindest regards.

My dear Mr. President:

Through the courtesy of Deputy Marshal Richard J. Qualters, I am forwarding to you, a desk lamp patterned after an old-fashioned pump. This lamp is being given to you in commemoration and appreciation of your "Pump Priming Program" to stimulate business recovery.

The materials for this lamp were supplied by the Franklin D. Roosevelt for President League of Massachusetts, of which, I have the honor to be president. The labor was performed by W.P.A. workers in their spare time, as a token of their gratitude for what you have done for them.

May this lamp be symbolic of your efforts to bring about peace and prosperity for humanity. Verily, "let there be light".

With every good wish and best personal regards, I remain,

Mr. Franklin Delano Roosevelt
White House, Washington, D.C.

Honorable President of Our Country:

There are two specific objectives for which I write this letter to Our Honor. Primarily I want to express you my sincere desire, praying to the Lord that in the cursing year you shall have plenty happiness and that you shall see the fulfillment of all yours wishes and hopes.

In obedience to the greatfulness that is hidden in the most profound of my heart and soul I write you this few words as a reciprocal to the innumerable favors that my daughter and I received from the american government since our Honor occupies the Presidency of this country.

My daughter had been in the same hospital that you was before; she has an imperfection on a leg and thanks to the Lord and to our Honor, she had a very careful attention and care in the already mentioned hospital.

Although the English language is so extense I can not find sufficient and appropriate words to express eloquently the gratitude that I feel for all the benevolences of such a kindhearted, distinguish and incomparable president.

My daughter is seventeen years old now and at the age of six years she was at the same hospital where you had been before as I said previously. (ly.

I dont want to be more monotonous; I want to finish expecting that you will accept this humble present as a material expresion of the greatfulness and gratitude I feel for all the favors received from our Honor.

Although I am a poor portorican in which humbleness perhaps is the characteristic descriptive of my character and personality. I expect you will appreciate this present having not in mind how humble and cheap it is, but remembering that it simbolizes the unification of the 48 democratic and powerful states which constitute the Republic of United States, which are directed by such a wise, religious and peaceful president.

With no other particular I remain unconditionally at yours orders expecting as I said before that you will not have in mind the humillity of the present.

January 12, 1941

Writes to Mr. Early about a quilt which she has been making since 1932, beginning with George Washington, and containing data about each succeeding President, down to President Roosevelt. Has several blocks concerning his personal history. Tells how highly she thinks of this quilt, and that, though she has been made several "offers" for it, that a million dollars would not buy it, as she wants to present it to the President. Makes her living for herself and son by taking in sewing.--On Jan. 21, 1941, Miss LeHand wrote to Mrs. Baker, re the above explaining that while the President has deep appreciation for such gifts, he does not feel that he can accept anything except small "tokens of small intrinsic value, and that he should not accept articles of considerable worth or gifts of handwork on which the donor has necessarily spent a great deal of time and personal effort."--On Jan. 24, 1941, Mrs. Baker wrote to Mrs. Roosevelt re the above, and expressing her great disappointment, still urging that she and the President accept the quilt. Mrs. Baker, in her first letter of Jan. 12th, expressed a desire for the President's autograph.--Miss LeHand wrote to Mrs. Baker, 2/11/41, in reply to her letter to Mrs. Roosevelt, reiterating the sentiments expressed in her first letter to Mrs. Baker.

Feb. 3, 1941

Writes to the President enclosing autographed copy of a booklet he has compiled and published of the President's 1940 campaign addresses. Asks if the President wants any more of these booklets. Tells of the wonderful response in Chattanooga to the President's Birthday Ball, of which he took charge. Speaks of the Inauguration Address and how much he enjoyed it. Says he left two dozen wonderful quail at the White House for the President and hopes he received them. -- Feb. 7, the President replied that he is delighted with his compilation and this constitutes "a first edition" outside of the Congressional Record. Wants three or four more copies for the children and the Library at Hyde Park. Thanks him for the quail saying they were delicious. Says the birthday celebrations were a tremendous success and he is especially proud of all the Judge did in Chattanooga.
