My dear Mr. McIntyre;

A very enthusiastic admirer of President Roosevelt, Mrs. H.N. Richardson of this city, expressed in your care, a fruit cake for the President. This went forward last Friday, and no doubt has been received by you at this time.

Mrs. Richardson has requested that I write you relative to same, rather than write herself for the reason that I have been private secretary to Senator Dickinson of Iowa, and she is under the delusion that I would get an answer, and she would not. Of course I am glad to comply with her request, and am sure that the above explanation will be of value to you in acknowledging receipt of the cake.

I might say that a very good friend of mine, Mr. W.D. Jamieson of your city, whom no doubt you know, may have called you by telephone relative to this gift. I wrote him and asked him to do this for he knows Mrs. Richardson very well.

My dear President:

Please accept my heartiest congratulations on Your splendid victory.

This city went truly AMERICAN for You Tuesday, breaking all records. But there was one girl who voted differently, so she penalized herself by reiding a mule through the Center of the town. I am certain that You and Mrs. Roosevelt will have a good laugh, so I am sending You a picture of that girl on the mule.

I would very much cherish a reply with Your personal signature. I wish You the best of health for Your continued inspiring leadership.

Yours very truly,

Dear President Roosevelt:

Under separate cover, I am sending you a pasted portrait of yourself and which I hope you will accept with my compliments. I made this from the picture shown in the Chicago Sunday Tribune, June 28-1936 issue.

If you do not mind, I should like to tell you its history and a little of mine.

We had a printing business which was lost during the depression. I was left a widow nine years ago with a five year old daughter to support, and after our business failed I was unable to find office work for which I was trained. My father passed away shortly before the business closed and my mother was left without means of support after the business closed.

However, I had trained in various forms of art,

oil, water color, pastel and china painting since childhood. and had taught at different times.
After failing to obtain work, I applied for Emergency School classes and for two years have taught art
class in the Emergency Adult Education work.
This is the third portrait of yourself which I have made since last August. The first being given to Mr Geo. R. Brooks who was District Director of District 14. On being changed to Columbus O.
the portrait was taken over there. The second was given to my county Supervisor Mr. R. C. Hartnell and this one I am sending you with my sincere appreciation for what the government through you has done for its needy citizens. I have been teaching 50 hours a month since last January.
I was sorry not to have been able to see whether this portrait was a good likeness but the crowd
at the depot October 16th was so great I could not see.

With my best wishes for your continued health and for a prosperous four years for our Government I am

My dear Sir:

As one of the many millions of people of this nation, who through confidence, have displayed an overwhelming testimonial of approval of your continuance in office, and their leader, I extend to you, my sincerest congratulatory and best wishes.

I trust that with the help of our Almighty, you will continue in the best of health, to perform your duties towards the betterment of our nation, socially, economically and financially. Personally, I feel assured that you will prove yourself to be a Master Builder.

In taking the privilege of writing to you, I cannot be too emphatic in saying, that at the recent ceremonies, on the site of Chrystie and Forsythe Streets, better known as the Sarah Delano Roosevelt Park, my enthusiasm was aroused to such extent, during its performance, that I took the liberty of taking your photograph of the occasion.

I am sending this photograph along with my letter, and I trust that you will bear mark it for safe keeping, along with all of the many other tokens of appreciation you have undoubtedly received.

Mr. M. A. LeHand, (Private Secretary)
President Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. LeHand:-

Under separate cover by Parcel Post prepaid mailed in your care the new Victory Plaque, "The Will of a Free People" The Plaque is finished with Mirroglass and is unbreakable it is ready for hanging, the writer is under the impression that the President will be very happy to see this smart, colorful and brilliant emblem a true symbol of leadership.

A smaller size plaque was also mailed today to Mrs. Roosevelt, under separate cover, Mr. Farley, who is a good friend also Mike Kelliher, Jims very dear and close friend received the smaller size plaque, if you would want one of these for your desk or home will be pleased to forward one to you, the writer expects to be in Washington for the Inuagration next month and no doubt thousands of these plaques will be on parade. Will very much appreciate your acknowledgement of the delivery of the Plaque both to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, with best wishes, I, am,

Very sincerely yours,

GJR to KL.

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt,

My dear Mr. President:-

As an expression of my gratitude upon your re-election and my appreciation for the substantially improved business resulting from the efforts of your administration, I would ask that you accept a jeweled American flag which I have had specially made up and am sending by registered mail.

Although Mr. Hearst and some of our Republican friends seemed to be, prior to the election, in fear and trembling of the communistic condition of affairs, nevertheless the American public has fully demonstrated its confidence in you and your policies. It is my thought that this token will be an appropriate decoration for your lapel on Inauguration Day.

With my most sincere and grateful thanks for all you have done for the United States and the World, I am,

Sincerely yours,

J. Richter

My dear Mr. Richter:

The President has received your letter of December nineteenth and has asked me to thank you ever so much for your thoughtful courtesy in sending him the token to which you refer. He is deeply grateful for your words of commendation and sends you his very best wishes for the holiday season.

I need hardly say that this gift can be accepted only with the understanding that there will be no publicity in connection with its presentation.

Very sincerely yours,

The President
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. President:

P.P.F. 9-R
This peach brandy is made at our farm in Maryland - from our own peaches - raised by ourselves - you will not find it sweet and syrupy - but - you WILL find it very strong.

These peaches have quite a history which I will not go into with you now but - in spite of their interesting life - I am sure it was beyond their greatest expectations to ever land in White House.

Merry Christmas to you all.

Noted
Most sincerely,

Eric Robert
