Dear Sir:

Am in receipt of your valued favor of Oct. 5th, in which you give me the location of my brothers grave, and for which I am very grateful.

I am very much surprised at contents of paragraph two of your letter where you state your office has a request for the return of the body of Lieut. John. E. Creeden.

Over a year ago the writer as brother and next of kin signed the papers that was sent me , to the effect that my brothers remains should be buried in the American Cemetery in France.

If your office has any records to the contrary they are not over my signature. I would ask that you investigate same and communicate with me before any definite action is taken.

Thanking you, I beg to remain,

Very truly,

J. P. Creeden
