OFFICE OF THE QUARTERMASTER GENERAL

Mrs. Lillie Daugherty,
Lock Box 734,
Wilmington, Ohio:

Dear Madam:

Your Government has provided an opportunity for all Mothers and Widows of deceased members of the American Forces who were lost, buried at sea, or whose remains are now interred in Europe, to make a pilgrimage to the cemeteries in Europe. This was done in the hope that all who may make the pilgrimage will derive a measure of comfort and solace from the visit.

You are numbered among those who are privileged to make this pilgrimage.

During July and September of this year, inquiries were addressed to you as to whether or not you desire to make the pilgrimage to Europe. To these inquiries no reply has been received from you.

You probably do not realize how important it is that a reply be received from you. If we do not receive replies, it becomes very difficult to make the necessary and proper arrangements for those who are to make the trip, as everything must be arranged in advance. Consequently, it is just as important for the Government to know the names of those who do not desire to take advantage of its offer as it is to know the names of those who do.

Will you please devote a few moments of your time to write either the word "YES" or "NO" in the following space _____, thus indicating whether or not you desire to make the pilgrimage during 1933 and sign your name here _____. Use the enclosed envelope, which requires no postage, and return this sheet.

This reply will assure your Government that no worthy Mother or Widow has failed to receive its offer in commemoration of a loved one departed, and will greatly assist in making the necessary preparations for those of them who wish to take advantage of the privilege.

For The Quartermaster General,

Very truly yours,

Mrs. Lillie Daugherty,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of January 27, 1930, wherein you inquire whether or not you may have one of your daughters accompany you on the pilgrimage to the grave of your son, the late Private Orville O. Daugherty, in the Meuse-Argonne American Cemetery in France, under the provisions of the Act of March 2, 1929.

In this connection you are advised that the Act referred to above, which authorized the pilgrimage, contains the stipulation that "No mother or widow shall be entitled, by reason of any payment made by or for her, to be furnished by the Government with transportation, accommodations, meals, and other necessities pertaining thereto different in kind from those prescribed by the Secretary of War for the pilgrimage of the particular group". To carry out this mandate of Congress, reservations have been made on commercial liners and in hotels in Europe and these reservations take most of the cabin class accommodations aboard steamships and practically all available space in the hotels in Europe outside of Paris. Motor bus transportation has also been arranged to transport the women who make the pilgrimage from Paris to the cemeteries and return. In view of the limited accommodations which are available, it is impracticable to accommodate relatives or friends who desire to accompany women making the pilgrimage in the same staterooms aboard ship or in the same hotels outside of Paris, since the reservations already made will be required for the use of the women who are authorized to make the pilgrimage.

It is, of course, possible for relatives and friends to secure accommodations on the same steamship and arrange for accommodations in Europe, and should one of your daughters desire to do this, she should take the matter up direct with the steamship company when you are notified of the ship upon which passage for you has been engaged.

The plans for the conduct of the pilgrimages have been prepared by The Quartermaster General and provide for every care needed by the mothers and widows from the time they leave home until they return thereto.

For the Acting The Quartermaster General.

Daugherty, Orville O.

January 31, 1930

Mrs. Lillie Daugherty,
R.F.D.#7,
Wilmington, Ohio.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of January 27, 1930, wherein you inquire whether or not you may have one of your daughters accompany you on the pilgrimage to the grave of your son, the late Private Orville O. Daugherty, in the House-Argonne American Cemetery in France, under the provisions of the Act of March 2, 1929.

In this connection you are advised that the Act referred to above, which authorized the pilgrimage, contains the stipulation that "No mother or widow shall be entitled, by reason of any payment made by or for her, to be furnished by the Government with transportation, accommodations, meals, and other necessities pertaining thereto different in kind from those prescribed by the Secretary of War for the pilgrimage of the particular group". To carry out this mandate of Congress, reservations have been made on commercial liners and in hotels in Europe and these reservations take most of the cabin class accommodations aboard steamships and practically all available space in the hotels in Europe outside of Paris. Motor bus transportation has also been arranged to transport the women who make the pilgrimage from Paris to the cemeteries and return. In view of the limited accommodations which are available, it is impracticable to accommodate relatives or friends who desire to accompany women making the pilgrimage in the same staterooms aboard ship or in the same hotels outside of Paris, since the reservations already made will be required for the use of the women who are authorized to make the pilgrimage.

It is, of course, possible for relatives and friends to secure accommodations on the same steamship and arrange for accommodations in Europe, and should one of your daughters desire to do this, she should take the matter up direct with the steamship company when you are notified of the ship upon which passage for you has been engaged.

The plans for the conduct of the pilgrimages have been prepared by The Quartermaster General and provide for every care needed by the mothers and widows from the time they leave home until they return thereto.

For the Acting The Quartermaster General.

Very truly yours,

A. D. HUGHES,
