Mr. Angelo D'Onofrio,
Mirabella, Eclano,
Avellino, Italy.

Dear Sir: The Quartermaster General desires to invite your attention to the inclosed card which gives the permanent cemetery location of the soldier's grave in which you are interested.

This American military cemetery is one of those to be maintained by the United States for all time in Europe. Each grave will be marked by a headstone of white marble, of dignified design, with the name, rank, division, organization, date of soldier's death and State from which he came. Headstones will be placed at all graves in connection with the improvement work now in progress, as soon as possible and without waiting for special action or request on the part of relatives.

Please be assured that in effecting removal of the dead, the utmost reverential care was exercised and more than willingly accorded by those who performed this sacred duty. For the future, these graves will be perpetually maintained by the Government in a manner befitting the last resting place of our heroes.

Very truly yours,

NOTE.—INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE DISPOSITION OF REMAINS will be issued by this office upon the properly executed authority of the legal next of kin in each case. The widow is the first person having disposition of the remains of her husband. Should there be no widow or children, the father and, in turn (upon his decease), the mother, is the proper authority. The brothers, in order of seniority, and then the sisters in order of seniority, if there are no brothers, rank next in authority to decide. Under an opinion rendered by the Judge Advocate General of the Army, if a widow has remarried she forfeits her right, and the next of kin as given above will make decision.

Adjutant General
Washington D.C.

C. D. ...

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your circular in regard to the disposal of remains of my dead son Alessandro D'Onofrio who died in war, and I dare say this,

Since the United States Government must pay for the shipment etc, and by sending it here will have to go through more expenses being that I am poor and make a miserable living, I would like if possible to send my part or the whole of the expenses, which would help me a great deal more.

Trusting that this plea will be heard by you Mr. Adjutant General, as you are well aware of the fact that here at the present time am suffering financially.

I further hope that the bill will be passed and my son will have a place in the "Field of Honor" in France.

Thanking you very kindly and with sincere wishes I am

Respectfully,
Angelo D'Onofrio
Father of Alessandro.
