Parents in Italy

Gentlemen:-

Mr. Wolf informs me that there is neither a mother or father surviving this decedent insofar as he has been able to ascertain. The parents have continued to reside in Italy and in the past years no one has been able to discover whether they are still living or not.

Mr. Wolf also desires me to ascertain, if possible, what disposition was made of the insurance which this man carried in government insurance. He informs me that in his understanding the insurance was made payable to him, and yet he has heard nothing for several years. He states that shortly after the war there was some correspondence in regard to this matter but no definite settlement was ever had.

I would appreciate it very much if you would take this matter up with the proper authorities and notify me as to what the final disposition was and whether, according to the records of the war department, Mr. Wolf has or did have any equity in this insurance.

Very truly yours,

Ralph H. Kurlbaum,
