1. For reply direct to Mrs. Isola De Santi, Ponteletto Lucca, Italy. Attention is invited to the decision of the Secretary of War, that no changes in requests would be accepted after Aug. 15, 1921 and no original requests after April 1st 1922, which govern in this case.

2. This soldier gave as his emergency addressee, Frank De Santi (Uncle) Hollister Ave. & Griffith St. San Francisco, Calif. His request was, that the body remain in France. The mother's address was not available at the time the Uncle's directions were accepted and acted upon. This was in accordance with a decision of the Secretary of War, that "Where all efforts to locate relatives have proven fruitless, the person so designated in the emergency address has the right to direct disposition of remains."

Sirs Your letter of the 7th September on hand and would like to say that if there is still a possible chance to have the remains of my son Marciso De Santi sent to Lucca, I would appreciate it very much, as I have my own plot in the cemetery which I bought when my husband died a year or so after my son, that way I would have one headstone for both, and would be hand for me to take care of them; hoping to hear from you soon with a favorable reply I am respectfully yours.
