“During the past few years, Nate has played a meaningful role in the success and growth of Acertitude — of particular note, standing up and leading a high-performing Healthcare & Life Sciences practice that is making a mark on the healthcare-focused private equity community,” said Rick DeRose, co-founder and managing partner. “The team’s focus on results and creative, problem-solving prove to be a potent combination in delivering brilliant people at work who transform portfolio companies — and contribute to creating a healthier world.”

DaPore established the firm’s Healthcare & Life Sciences practice when he joined Acertitude in August 2017 and has since grown it by double digits each year, achieving 35 percent year-over-year growth in 2020.

Most of all, it gives me great pride to work alongside such a dedicated team of professionals, each of whom are committed to helping the incredible businesses we get to be a part of everyday achieve their aspirations for transformational change and growth,” said DaPore. “Given the massive shifts in the healthcare and life sciences industries, intensified by the COVID-19 pandemic, we see many opportunities ahead to help our private equity and portfolio company clients find those extraordinary executives who are ready to meet these challenges and build an even brighter future.”
