Partner
Practice Leader, Healthcare & Life Sciences

As a partner in Acertitude's Healthcare & Life Sciences practice, Vicki leads execution teams in the placement of board members, CEOs, and senior functional leaders. She brings over 20 years of search experience, having served small to mid-size private equity portfolio companies, innovative start-ups, and F500 publicly traded organizations. Vicki has a passion for placing transformative leaders and building strong client and candidate relationships, taking the time to understand the intricacies of each business and search she supports.

Prior to joining Acertitude, Vicki was a managing director with TEG Consulting, an Acertitude company, where she was a key contributor to the firm's exceptional growth. In her early career, Vicki held a variety of sales and sales management roles within leading F500 companies, receiving numerous accolades and awards for her high performance and success building new teams from the ground up.

Even outside of work, Vicki is a mover and doer. She enjoys staying active by golfing with her husband, entertaining friends, and running and walking with (and without) her dog.
