

FRANCES HOLK JONES' RECORD

Taxpayer-Funded College for Illegal Aliens

Record-High College
Prices for Alabama's Kids

April 24, 2024, HB 210

Frances Holk-Jones Voted for Taxpayer-Subsidized College Education for Illegals

Free College for Illegal Aliens

HUNTSVILLE REAL-TIME NEWS

Some Republicans in Alabama support open borders and illegal aliens

Updated: Dec. 18, 2025, 11:30 a.m. | Published: Dec. 18, 2025, 7:00 a.m.

The bill would use tax dollars to subsidize illegal aliens attending Alabama public colleges if they first “applied for lawful presence in the United States.” Since any and all illegal aliens can “apply for lawful presence in the United States,” HB 210 cleverly guts Tea Party border security successes by dunning taxpayers for illegal alien college education costs.

Frances Holk-Jones does not represent our conservative Alabama values.

Learn More at:
HolkJonesVotingRecord.com

Higher College Costs for Alabama Citizens

Alabama’s higher education costs rise like the nation’s, but not always for the same reasons

BY: JEMMA STEPHENSON - AUGUST 15, 2023 7:01 AM

College tuition has gotten more expensive throughout the United States over the last two decades. Alabama is no exception. According to the Alabama Commission on Higher Education (ACHE), in-state tuition at Alabama’s public colleges and universities rose 28.2% over the last ten years.

Paid for by Alabama Values PAC
9164 Eastchase Parkway, PMB 151
Montgomery, AL 36117-9998