Actor & Comedian
Hannibal Buress
Comes to George Mason University
For a Night of Stand Up
Saturday, December 1 at 8 p.m.

Presented by Student Involvement and the Center for the Arts

(Fairfax, VA) Comedian Hannibal Buress returns to George Mason University’s campus for a one-night-only performance presented by Student Involvement in collaboration with the Center for the Arts, Friday, December 1 at 8 p.m at the Fairfax Campus. Tickets are available to the general public.

Hailed by The New York Times as one of the most “supremely gifted and respected” comics around, Hannibal is also known as a writer, actor, and host of the popular podcast, Hannibal Buress: Handsome Rambler. He is a cast member on Comedy Central’s hit series Broad City and his stand-up special, Comedy Camisado, is currently streaming on Netflix. Hannibal can also be seen on the big screen in popular films such as Daddy’s Home, Spider-Man: Homecoming, and TAG, among many others. He also lent his voice to the animated films The Secret Life of Pets and Angry Birds. Catch this hilarious comedian during this single evening of laugh-out-loud moments.

Please note that this performance includes adult language and themes.

Tickets: $40, $30 for General Public; $20, $15 for Mason Students, limit 2 per Mason ID. Tickets are available in person at the Center for the Arts’ Ticket Office (open Tuesday–Saturday from 10 a.m.–6 p.m.), by calling 703-993-2787, or through the Center for the Arts’ website at http://www.tinyurl.com/hannibalGMU.

The Center for the Arts Concert Hall is located at 4373 Mason Pond Drive, Fairfax, VA.
