Volgenau School of Engineering
Math Placement Test Information math.gmu.edu/placement_test

This flow chart shows the prerequisites required for 100-level math courses as related to students ONLY in the Volgenau School of Engineering. Three sections of the test must be completed to place into MATH 113, Calculus I.

Placement Test Exemptions

AP Calculus-AB: score of 4/5 will earn credit for MATH 113. ||| AP Calculus-BC: score of 4/5 will earn credit for MATH 113 & MATH 114.

AP Calculus-AB or BC: score of 3 will earn credit for MATH 123 and allow placement into MATH 124 or MATH 113 and CS 112 (MATH 108 for IT majors).

IB Higher Learning: score of 4 will earn credit for MATH 123 and allow placement into MATH 124 or MATH 113, and CS 112 (MATH 108 for IT majors).

IB Standard Learning: score of 5 will allow placement into MATH 108 (IT majors only).

Dual Enrollment from a Community College for MATH 105 or MATH 113.

If eligible for department override due to exemption send screenshot/proof of score, with your name visible on the proof, in an email with your name and G-number to: Math Department, Christine Amaya camaya@gmu.edu ; CS Department csug@gmu.edu ; CDS Department: Karen Underwood kunderwo@gmu.edu

2019-2020