Proven’s Announcement

What Fun and DM0 serve in Law School

Fair Student Dean, Provost, and Law School Dean are hosting a Zoom meeting on Wednesday, July 16 at 1:00 p.m. to discuss fun, DM0, and their impact on the law school. The meeting will be held virtually and is open to all members of the law school.

Facility Book Orders

Faculty Encouraged to Submit Book Orders to Mason

The College of Humanities and Social Sciences (CHSS) is encouraging faculty to submit book orders for the fall semester. Orders can be submitted through the CHSS website or by contacting the office of the associate dean for academic affairs.

CMAI Virtual Sessions

The Center for Mathematics and Artificial Intelligence (CMAI) is hosting virtual sessions on Fridays to discuss a variety of academic issues. The center will be under the theme of "Reduced Order Models." The center's July 24 event will feature presentations by Brenner (LSU) and Prof. Natasha. The event will be held virtually on Fridays.

Faculty Town Hall

Faculty Meeting Held to Discuss Copyright in University Works, Data Commons Copyright

The Faculty Town Hall was held to discuss copyright in university works and data commons copyright. The meeting was also discussed the concept of using background IP, derivative works and limited term contracts. The meeting was also discussed the concept of using background IP, derivative works and limited term contracts. The meeting was also discussed the concept of using background IP, derivative works and limited term contracts.

Facilities Meeting

Patriots Helping Patriots Card Program

The Patriots Helping Patriots Card Program will be available to all students. The program will provide financial assistance to students who need help paying rent, utility bills, and other resources to students. The program will also provide child care and food. Each student will be able to receive assistance to pay for rent, utility bills, and other resources.

International Student Update

Clarification on International Students Following Safe Return to Campus

On Friday, July 17, Provost Ginsberg sent an email to students with information regarding the safe return to campus. The email was also discussed the concept of using background IP, derivative works and limited term contracts. The email was also discussed the concept of using background IP, derivative works and limited term contracts. The email was also discussed the concept of using background IP, derivative works and limited term contracts.

Zoom Webinar

Opens Center for High Education Using Zoom to Enhance Class Engagement and Enhance Class Strategies

The Opens Center for High Education is using Zoom to enhance class engagement and enhance class strategies. The center's webinar will focus on using Zoom to enhance class engagement and enhance class strategies.

Graduate Education

Graduate Education in the Marketing Education

The Graduate Education in the Marketing Education program is open to all students. The program is designed for graduate students, postdocs, and early career faculty. The program will be held online from 9:00 – 10:30 a.m. This course is designed for graduate students, postdocs, and early career faculty.

Office of the Provost

Mason Scholarships

The Mason Scholarships are open to all students. The scholarships are intended to support students who need financial assistance. The scholarships are open to all students. The scholarships are intended to support students who need financial assistance.