

200 Club Lottery

This is a private lottery, open to Worshipful Company of Butchers' Liverymen and other interested parties, that would generate a regular income to assist in meeting the repayment costs for the refurbishment to those parts of Butchers' Hall used by Liverymen - and in addition, there is a chance to win a cash prize every month!

All members of the 'WCB 200 Club' commit to a subscription of £10 per month, per ticket, payable by bank direct debit. One half of the total monthly subscription will be offered as prize money. The other half will be donated to the livery butchers' hall refurbishment fabric fund. The greater the number of subscribers, the greater will be the prize money and the greater the contribution to The Livery.

Example:

If 200 persons agree to contribute £10 per month, the total amount pledged each month will be £2,000.

The amount available as prize money will be a half of this total, i.e. £1,000 and the contribution to the Butchers' Hall Fundraising Appeal will be £1,000.

Interested?

- As a private lottery you would have to be invited to join (but please express your interest).
- You will need to complete an application form, confirming your commitment to contribute £10 per month and a point of contact for notification.
- On completion and processing, you will be allocated a "ticket number".
- The draw will take place on the first Friday of each month at the Court Lunch or Dinner. If there is no event held in any particular month, the draw will take place in the office and notification of the winning ticket will be emailed to all Liverymen.
- Further details can be obtained from the WCB office.
