Aging Gratefully

A 30-Day Devotional for Women

Heather Creekmore

In a society that idolizes youth, it's easy for women in the middle stage of life to become frustrated with their appearance or feel that they have nothing to offer. Aging Gratefully provides 45- to 65-year-olds sincere hope that they can find value in their hard-earned wisdom and purpose in the years to come. Heather Creekmore offers humorous encouragement in 30 devotional readings that include prayer prompts and action steps for gratefulness in the current season. With chapter titles like "Zippers, Snaps, and Other Annoyances" and "Why Did I Pick Up My Phone?," readers will find reasons to laugh out loud, reminders to live abundantly, and a mindset that it's not a midlife crisis—it's a midlife celebration.

Through her books and podcast, Heather Creekmore speaks hope, inspiring women to stop the treadmill of comparison and start living in the depths of God's grace. She has been featured on Fox News, HuffPost, Church Leaders, Netflix, and dozens of other shows and podcasts. Heather and her fighter-pilot-turned-pastor husband, Eric, have four children and live in Austin, Texas. Connect with Heather at comparadowho.me.

The Good Shepherd

Forty Biblical Insights on Leading and Being Led

Tim Laniak

From actual shepherds such as Moses and David to the apostles calling church elders to pastor their flocks, leadership in the Bible is embodied in the humble, vigilant, everyday work of shepherds. To better understand this metaphor, Tim Laniak spent months among Bedouin shepherds in the Middle East. Combining this rich cultural experience with careful biblical study, Laniak offers 40 short readings that explore every leader's responsibility to provide, protect, and guide. As followers of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, Christians are called to be good shepherds of the sheep in their care, whether in the home, church, or neighborhood.

Tim Laniak (ThD, Harvard University) has enjoyed traveling to and opening up biblical lands to students and leaders since 1978. He has authored several books including Shepherds after My Own Heart: Pastoral Traditions and Leadership in the Bible. Tim serves as senior vice president of global content for Our Daily Bread Ministries.

Peace through Prayer

Rest and Restoration for Your Soul

James Banks

Jesus promised His followers would face trouble in this world—but He also promised them His peace. Yet Christians don't automatically experience peace while waiting for a biopsy result or walking through unemployment. So how do people receive and enjoy the peace God offers?

The answer is found in prayer that builds an everyday, heart-to-heart relationship with the Creator. With scriptural insights and inviting storytelling, James Banks shows how daily friendship with God brings readers peace even as they experience anxieties, suffer past hurts, and face chronic difficulties.

Dr. James Banks has been a pastor and church planter for more than thirty years. Through articles, devotions, videos, podcasts, and books—including his best-selling Prayers for Prodigals—James has a gift for encouraging people to pray. He and his wife, Cari, live in Durham, North Carolina, and have two adult children. Learn more at JamesBanks.org.

King Solomon

Life Lessons from the Wisest Man Who Ever Lived

Bill Crowder

Our Daily Bread author Bill Crowder examines both the wisdom and the folly of ancient Israel's King Solomon. Readers will gain valuable insights from this character study of the man who authored much of the Bible's "wisdom literature." As his fame spread and his prosperity grew, Solomon traded his humble reliance on God for pride in his reputation and accomplishments. In their everyday decisions, relationships, and difficulties, readers will learn to instead trade pride and self-reliance for the wisdom of humble dependence on God.

Bill Crowder served in the pastorate for more than 20 years before joining Our Daily Bread Ministries. He has authored more than 20 books, including Wisdom for Our Worries, and many topical Bible-study booklets. Now semi-retired, Bill continues to contribute to the Our Daily Bread devotional and cohosts the Discover the Word podcast. He and his wife, Marlene, live in North Carolina.

In this 6-week Bible study, women will dive deep into the life of Sarah and be challenged to lean on God's unfailing promises amid the chaos and unpredictability that life so often brings.

- A 6-week Bible study on the life of Sarah, the wife of the Old Testament patriarch Abraham
- Digs into Scripture 5 days a week to show how Sarah's life was ultimately shaped by God's promises—and readers' lives can be too
- From author and podcaster Shannon Popkin

Shaped by God's Promises

Lessons from Sarah on Fear and Faith

Shannon Popkin

In our high-stress, high-anxiety culture, women will find much to relate to in this 6-week Bible study on the tumultuous life and faith of Sarah, wife of the Old Testament patriarch Abraham. Instead of trusting in God's promises, Sarah took matters into her own hands—like many of us are tempted to do. While digging into Scripture 5 days a week, readers will see that God was with Sarah and faithfully for her, even when she couldn't see it. They'll discover that Sarah's life was ultimately shaped not by her hardships or heartaches but by the reliable promises of God—and theirs can be too! Perfect for individual or group study.

Shannon Popkin invites women to drink deeply of God's story and live like it's true. Her books include Comparison Girl and Control Girl, and she hosts the Live Like It's True Bible podcast. Shannon has been featured on Revive Our Hearts, FamilyLife Today, The Gospel Coalition, and Proverbs 31. Shannon is happy to be sharing life with Ken, who makes her laugh every day. Together, they have the joy of watching their three young-adult kids become the amazing people God created them to be.
