A Cloud of Women

The Powerful Connection between Black Women and Women of the Bible

Georgia A. Hill and Diane Proctor Reeder

A Cloud of Women highlights dozens of biblical women, pointing out parallels between their life experiences and the lives of contemporary and historical Black women like Shirley Chisholm and Sojourner Truth. Empowering biblical truths and illustrations prompt readers to serve and lead in their families, communities, and churches. Eve, Esther, Mary, and Deborah are a few of the guides as A Cloud of Women navigates cultural and women's issues then and now. Readers will realize the eternal influence of God, the Bible, and the Holy Spirit in their lives and see opportunities for their own service and impact today.

Rev. Dr. Georgia A. Hill is a regular writer for Our Daily Bread Publishing's Voices Collection. Hill is pastor of LifeChurch Riverside, a Detroit ministry launched online in 2020 during the COVID-19 pandemic. Deeply engaged in women's ministry and Christian education, she's an adjunct faculty member at Ecumenical Theological Seminary.

Diane Proctor Reeder writes primarily on spiritual topics that move readers to think more deeply about their faith and lives. She is an editor, playwright, and business owner of Written Images. Diane has served as an editor for Urban Ministries, Inc., Parker Books, and Our Daily Bread Publishing's Voices Collection.

Hope for Widows

Reflections on Mourning, Living, and Change

Marilyn Nutter

Hope for Widows offers women connections in their grief, guiding them to see hope, grace, and camaraderie on an unfamiliar path. With personal reflections, questions, and expressions of gratitude, widows will join Marilyn Nutter in recognizing God's faithful presence in details and unusual places. The 65 vignettes apply Scripture and relevant quotes to grief and mourning and look with transparency at how widowhood dramatically changes a woman's life. Amid the readings are opportunities for a woman to journal her treasured memories, reflect on the additional losses that accompany the death of a spouse, and appreciate unexpected gifts.

Marilyn Nutter is the coauthor of Destination Hope: A Travel Companion When Life Falls Apart, the author of devotional books, and a contributor to several compilations and online sites. Guided by the promises of God's mercies and faithfulness in Lamentations 3:22–23, she shares with others, weaving hope and purpose into their life stories. Marilyn resides in Greer, South Carolina, and her family includes eight grandchildren, scattered across three states. Connect with her at marilynnutter.com.

Graceful Influence

Making a Lasting Impact through Lessons from Women of the Bible

Lori Roeleveld

Readers can realize the power of their own influence by examining the lives of women from the Bible and discovering how their choices influenced future generations. Even in unwise choices, readers will see how God was able to use their stories to make himself known. The relevance of their struggles will shed light on the difficulties modern women face. Perfect for newcomers and longtime readers of Scripture, 30 short chapters unpack the Bible's stories and reveal encouragement and challenge.

Lori Stanley Roeleveld is a professional coach, author, speaker, and disturber of hobbits. She harnesses the power of God's Word to revive the hearts of weary believers. Lori loves Jesus, her family, and small churches. Degreed in psychology and biblical studies, she learned the most from studying her Bible in life's trenches. Find the heart to press on at www.loriroeleveld.com.

Unshakable Moxie

Growing a Resilient Faith, A Bible Study

Lina AbuJamra

This Bible study opens up the conversation of real-life faith development and provides space for women to answer the question: How can I have a resilient faith? Combined with the Unshakable Moxie video series, this powerful study explores biblical lessons around the themes posed in each episode. Hosts Moriah Smallbone and Toni Collier press deeply into the tough topics—forgiveness, disillusionment, hardship—with notable guests to reveal how they have been able to hang on to and even grow their faith during challenging circumstances. Women will see God's faithfulness through the lives of other women and understand how their identity in Christ can strengthen their faith as they persevere through their own trials and triumphs.

Lina AbuJamra is an author, medical doctor, radio show host, and founder of Living with Power Ministries. Now a popular Bible teacher and podcaster, she speaks extensively at conferences, retreats, and colleges around the world. Lina ministers to singles through her Moody Radio show, Today's Single Christian, and she is the author of several books, including Thrive, Stripped, Resolved, Fractured Faith: Finding Your Way Back to God in an Age of Deconstruction, and her most recent Bible study, Through the Desert. Born in Beirut, Lebanon, Lina now calls Chicago home. She is single and a huge Green Bay Packers fan.

By Faith

Strength and Hope for Life's Challenges

Chris Morris

This 40-day devotional helps readers discover how to cultivate an enduring faith, no matter what trials or hardships they are going through. They'll learn from the examples of the men and women listed in Hebrews 11—those recognized for holding fast to God's promises despite living in a world of not-yets, what-ifs, and in-betweens. With its uplifting devotions, guided journaling exercises, blessings, and prayers, By Faith provides a safe place for those in a season of heartache, loss, or loneliness. It also serves as a reassuring faith reminder for anyone who wants to draw near to God and stand on His promises.

Chris Morris is an author and mental health advocate for the church. He has published two other books, Perfectly Abnormal and Whispers in the Pews. When Chris is not writing, he is the managing partner of a CPA firm specializing in supporting creative entrepreneurs. Chris lives in Waddell, Arizona, with his wife, Barbara, and his daughter, Cynthia. His other kids—Jonathon, Sean, and Elijah—are spread across the United States.

Simply Pray

How to Ask, Seek, and Knock for Answered Prayer

Deb Hopper

Readers will understand the power of ASK—Ask, Seek, Knock—as they examine their own prayer lives and apply this simple concept from Matthew 7:7. Deb Hopper masterfully weaves her own story of divorce and desperation to hope and healing with biblical principles and Scripture to encourage everyone to pray. With over 30 years of answered prayer covering everything from cars to careers to children, Deb offers a relatable book demonstrating how every concern is worth bringing to God. It encourages readers to incorporate prayer more firmly into their lives in a simple way that makes a powerful impact.

Deb Hopper felt called to ministry at age 16, and she spent the first 25 years of her professional career serving in the church and working in the corporate world. Her years as a business manager helped her provide for two young daughters as a single mother but were also the breaking point in her spiritual life and the beginning of a power-filled prayer journey. After 10 years as the women's pastor at Seacoast Church (a 25,000-member megachurch based in South Carolina), she transitioned off staff to pursue family ministry and life coaching. Married for 27 years to Gibson Hopper, she has three daughters, two sons-in-love, and 11 grandchildren.
