Anna Dalla Val

Ralph Lauren Corporation

Anna Dalla Val is Vice President, Intellectual Property Counsel at Ralph Lauren Corporation. She is responsible for global brand management and protection of the company's intellectual property rights and works with senior management to continue to develop and protect the strength of the Ralph Lauren brands. Together with her team, Anna covers all aspects of intellectual property work, from trademark and artwork clearance, to portfolio building and management, trademark infringement litigation and the global anti-counterfeiting program.

Prior to joining Ralph Lauren, Anna worked extensively in matters involving Intellectual Property prosecution and litigation for several companies in the fashion, media, aluminum and pharmaceutical industries in the Intellectual Property Department of Greenberg Traurig, LLP.

For several years, Anna has been recognized on WTR 300: The World's Leading Corporate Trademark Professionals. She received her law degree from Columbia Law School.
