

Joint Fall Meeting of Rangeland and Grazing Land Stakeholders

Hosted by Cal-Pac SRM and CalGLC, November 11th and 12th

AGENDA (some presenters TBC)

Tuesday, November 11

5:00 pm: Social hour with appetizers and no-host beer, wine, and NA beverages

6:00 pm: Tri-tip and chicken dinner catered by Odell Craft BBQ

Cal-Pac awards, bone auction, and silent auction

6:45 pm: Keynote Address

Featuring Tip Hudson with James Rogers – Stewardship: The Need and The Responsibility

Wednesday, November 12

8:30: Coffee and snacks

9:00: Welcome and overview of the day

9:10: Grazing Land Conservation Initiative (GLCI)-funded projects

Project representatives from regional and state-wide projects will share updates and forthcoming opportunities, including UC Rangelands, Regional Soil Hubs, Conservation Districts, Center for Regenerative Ag and Resilient Systems, and CA Grazing Lands Coalition

10:00: Break

10:30: Community-led and focused partnerships

Representatives from community collaborations will share successes and lessons learned in assisting community and resource stewardship within rural regions of the state.

12:30: Lunch - taco bar catered by Paloma's catering

Update on 2026 SRM Annual Meeting - Feb 7-11 in Monterey, CA

"Herd 'round the World": Celebrating Global Rangelands and Pastoralism

1:15: Resources for Ranchers and Producer-led Initiatives

Including NRCS and FSA, CDFA Office of Agriculture Resilience and Sustainability, CA Rangeland Trust, Rancher Technical Assistance Program, and CA Cattle Council

2:15: Break

2:30: USDA Wildlife Services - Drone use for reducing wolf-livestock conflict

Program and research leads with USDA-WS will share updates and considerations for future efforts

3:30: Social hour - time to visit with colleagues and follow-up with presenters, venue will close at 5:00