

ACCET Document 20 – Review of Instructional Materials

Institution:

City/Location:

Program/Course:

Reviewer:

	yes	no
A. Instructional materials demonstrate the appropriate scope, sequence, and depth.
B. Instructional materials are readily available to students at the start of program/course.
C. Instructional materials are free from grammatical, spelling, and typographical errors.
D. Instructional materials are compliant with copyright and software licensing requirements.

Rate instructional materials in the following areas, using this scale: 3 = exceeds; 2 = meets; 1 = needs improvement.	3	2	1
1. Instructional materials support the objective(s) of the program/course.
2. Instructional materials are aligned with the institution's methodology and curriculum.
3. Instructional materials are relevant and up to date.
4. Instructional materials provide relevant learning activities.
5. Instructional materials are organized in a logical, sequential manner.
6. Instructional materials include diverse exercises and activities.
7. Instructional materials are engaging and user friendly.

Comments: