Home

Where I belong is home. Where I can fly like a bird. Home is the place where I can chase my dreams without judgement

Being

Home makes safe. No matter with friends or family, to me. It can be a park, a store,

Home is a sanctuary where I can rest and find peace and quiet. That is a home. Home is not always a perfect place. There Will be fights, conflicts, and arguments, but that's what makes a place a home. It teaches me lessons that will carry me through my life. Freedom, Friendliness, family, friends, and food, but also squabbles, skirmishes, and sadness

These good and bad things make a home. My home can be a home for others too. It can also be a place of suffering for others, but everyone still has a place or people they enjoy being with. Home is not just a place, it's a feeling, "A house is built of walls and beams, but a home is built with love and dreams."

Home is safe, true, loyal, original, loving, caring, an oasis, refuge, church, temple, office, a place to recharge, a place to relieve stress, a secure place.

Home is where I belong
