

ASCP Virtual Slide Review Series

Challenging Differential Diagnoses in Small Gynecologic Specimens

Program Content and Disclosure

The primary purpose of this activity is educational and the comments, opinions, and/or recommendations expressed by the faculty or authors are their own and not those of the ASCP. There may be, on occasion, changes in faculty and program content. In order to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all its educational activities, and in accordance with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, the ASCP requires all individuals in positions to influence and/or control the content of ASCP CME activities to disclose whether they do or do not have any financial relationships with ineligible companies producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients, with the exemption of non-profit or government organizations and non-health care related companies. These relationships are reviewed and any identified conflicts of interest are mitigated prior to the activity.

The following Challenging Differential Diagnoses in Small Gynecologic Specimens Planning Committee Members and Faculty have no relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies to disclose:
