

CENTER FOR A NEW AMERICAN SECURITY (CNAS) Annual Corporate Partnership Program

Members of the CNAS Corporate Partnership Program can engage in a broad set of CNAS activities, including invitations to events, interaction with our research programs, and access to our experts across the Center. Partners also participate in strategic policy conversations and have the opportunity to affiliate with the nation's leading defense and security policy institute. CNAS works closely with our partners to customize support, and we welcome further discussion on the tiered partnership benefits outlined below.

Bold Level | $125,000+ contribution

- Opportunity for a partner to nominate an executive to join the CNAS Board of Advisors (per an invitation from a CNAS Executive Team member).
- Opportunity to request a total of six private briefings with CNAS experts, held virtually until further notice, during one membership year (based on expert availability).
 - Option to include a CNAS Executive Team member for two of these briefings.
- Invitation to attend exclusive events with national security leaders in New York, San Francisco, Washington, D.C., and other cities across the United States and beyond.
- Availability of CNAS Executive Team members, program directors, and senior fellows to speak at corporate partner conferences, working groups, or internal events (based on expert availability).
- Invitation to the CNAS' annual National Security Conference VIP events, held exclusively for CNAS supporters.
- Full benefits of the Innovative and Bipartisan levels, as listed below.

Innovative Level | $65,000 contribution

- Opportunity to request a total of four private briefings with CNAS experts, held virtually until further notice, during one membership year (based on expert availability).
 - Option to include a CNAS Executive Team member for one of these briefings.
- Opportunity to attend select, project-specific, private roundtable discussions hosted by CNAS research programs.
- Full benefits of the Bipartisan level, as listed below.

Bipartisan Level | $35,000 contribution

- Opportunity to request two private briefings with CNAS experts during one membership year, held virtually until further notice (based on expert availability).
