

Nathalie Grogan is a Research Associate for the Military, Veterans, and Society Program at CNAS. Her research focuses on the National Guard and military families. Grogan serves as the military fellow liaison and as a coordinator of The Pitch at CNAS. She participates in the Hamilton Society Security and Strategy Seminar as an Iran fellow.

Grogan has testified before the Massachusetts Legislature Special Joint Oversight Committee on the Soldier's Home. Her commentary and analysis have appeared in Government Matters, War on the Rocks, RealClearDefense, and The Hill, among others.

Grogan previously worked as an English teaching assistant in Oyonnax, France. Her internships include time at the Professional Services Council and Israeli Embassy in Washington, D.C. She holds a master's in public policy from George Washington University, specializing in foreign, defense, and security policy. She earned her bachelor's degree in history and French from SUNY Geneseo.