Emma Swislow is the Editorial Assistant at CNAS. In addition to editing and coordinating written research products from across the Center, she also curates the Make Room newsletter and assists with The Pitch, an annual event that elevates new and emerging voices in the national security field.

Prior to joining CNAS, Swislow interned at Stars and Stripes as a Dow Jones News Fund Multiplatform Editing Intern. While there, she wrote and edited articles about issues and events that impact the military community.

Swislow is from Chicago, Illinois, and graduated magna cum laude from Amherst College with a BA in English and geology. At Amherst, she was the editor-in-chief of The Amherst Student, the student newspaper on campus.
