

Contents

Introduction	ix
--------------	----

Build an Inclusive Maker Learning Culture

View from the Field: Culture First, Tools Second	2
Maker Culture: Redefining Opportunities for Student Innovation	2
Define Maker Learning	10
Is It Making?	11
What Is Prototyping and Why Does It Matter?	16
Establish a Team of Maker Champions	22
Maker Manifesto	26
HOW-TO STRATEGIES:
Develop a Culture of Inclusive Maker Learning	28
Next Steps	36
Reflection	37

Develop a Systems-Based Approach to Inclusive Maker Learning

View from the Field: Embracing Diverse Perspectives	39
Connecting the Dots and Building Capacity	39
HOW-TO STRATEGIES:
Creating Breakthroughs	42

Next Steps 63

Reflection 63

Integrate UDL Guidelines Into Maker Experiences

View from the Field: Do We Need a Space for Making? 65

Creating Inclusive Spaces for Maker Learning 66

Steps to a High-Impact Virtual Makerspace 67

UDL in Your Maker Learning Environment 78

Next Steps 102

Reflection 102

Scaffolding the Student Design Process

Strategies for Each Phase of the Design Process 104

HOW-TO STRATEGIES:

Unpacking the Design Challenge 106

Identifying a Target User or Audience 116

Research and Define 127

Defining Problems and Ideating Solutions 134

Sketching 144

Prototyping 151

Evaluation	161
Next Steps	167
Reflection	168

Expand Your Reach and Launch Maker Learning for All

View from the Field: Invest the Time	170
Build Understanding Across Stakeholder Groups	170
HOW-TO STRATEGIES:
Spread the Word	172
Next Steps	183
Reflection	184

Continuous Improvement and Assessing Program Growth

View from the Field: What's the End Game?	186
Commit to Supporting Complex Change	187
Use Data to Make Informed Decisions and Evaluate Professional Learning	194
HOW-TO STRATEGIES:
Evaluating Programmatic Growth	200
Micro-Credentials: Build Capacity Through Choice	207
Maker Roadmap: Guide the Journey	212
Next Steps and Reflection	215
References	217
Index	219