

The Courts of New York

A GUIDE TO COURT PROCEDURES

SECOND EDITION

NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

Use of this product confirms acceptance of the NYSBA license.

The Courts<sup>of</sup> New York

A GUIDE TO COURT PROCEDURES

SECOND EDITION

New York State Bar Association Continuing Legal Education publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.

Copyright 2021
New York State Bar Association
All rights reserved
ISBN: 978-1-57969-110-3
Product Number: 425521E

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The idea for The Courts of New York came from the New York State Bar Association's Committee on Justice and the Community, which recognized that an explanation and breakdown of the New York state and federal court system would be a useful educational tool for the press and the public. The NYSBA's Media Services Department acted as publisher, receiving financial support for the project from The New York Bar Foundation. Those contributing to the 2001 edition included chapter authors Seth H. Agata, Richard W. Babinecz, Judge Gregory W. Carman, Norman Goodman, Elizabeth Hubbard, Barry Kamins, Michael F. McEneney, Douglas G. O'Brien, Patricia Parker, Judge Richard Lee Price, James J. Roth, Judge Robert J. Ward, and Judge Penny M. Wolfgang; Committee chair, Gregory X. Hesterberg; Frank J. Ciervo, editor; Terri Porter, copy editor; and Leslie Dunn, production coordinator.

The impetus for this update came from an out-of-state member's request. She was planning on getting licensed in New York and was wondering if we published a guide to the New York courts. We did, but also realized that some things had changed since the 2001 edition. Dan McMahon, NYSBA publications director, and Joan Fucillo, production manager, worked an update into the 2014–2015 production schedule. NYSBA law clerk Kelly Herczeg conducted research for the update, and William H. Manz, a former senior research librarian at St. John's University School of Law, generously reviewed the updates and made suggestions for additional material. From the NYSBA copyediting staff, Howard Healy, a former newspaper editor, made additions and updates to the section titled "A Journalist's Perspective"; Alex Dickson coordinated the project; and Reyna Eisenstark and Kate Mostaccio proofed the material. We would also like to thank the anonymous member whose query spurred this new edition.

NYSBA's Publication Department would like to thank Marc Bloustein who graciously submitted updates for the Second Edition. Thanks also to Alex Dickson, Kirsten Downer, Candace Grabow, Howard Healy, Dan McMahon and the rest of the Publications team.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments .....	iii
Chapter One
Courts of New York State .....	1
Chapter Two
Civil Cases .....	15
Chapter Three
Criminal Cases .....	27
Chapter Four
Trials .....	35
Chapter Five
Federal Courts .....	47
Chapter Six
Independence of the Judiciary .....	59
Chapter Seven
The Role of Lawyers in the Justice System .....	69
Chapter Eight
News Coverage of the Courts: Two Different Worlds .....	79
Glossary .....	87