2020–2021

Publisher's Note: As a result of the COVID crisis, Governor Cuomo has issued a number of Executive Orders that affect various deadlines and limitations periods, and the New York judicial districts have issued administrative orders that affect court operations and procedures. Practitioners are urged to keep abreast of continuing developments, including additional or extended Executive Orders and Court directives, by regularly visiting the Governor's Executive Orders web page, www.governor.ny.gov/executiveorders, the Unified Court System website, www.nycourts.gov, and the websites for the judicial districts and specific courts. Readers can also visit the NYSBA COVID-19 Information Center, nysba.org/covid-19-information-updates.

* The authors gratefully acknowledge the assistance of Norman D. Alvy, Esq. and Frederick C. Wolsky, Esq., in the initial preparation of this text in 1990. Norman D. Alvy, Esq. also served as co-author from 1990–2017.

NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. MICHAEL J. MATTIA, ESQ.

Michael J. Mattia is a partner with the firm of Tunstead and Schechter and focuses on the areas of construction law, surety law, and commercial litigation. He received his Bachelor's Degree in Politics, Philosophy and Law from SUNY Binghamton and his Juris Doctor degree from Hofstra University School of Law. Mr. Mattia has litigated cases involving breach of contract, extra work, delays, acceleration, defective materials, changed conditions, latent defects, design errors, constructive abandonment, payment bonds, performance bonds, lien foreclosure, and other issues in the world of complex construction litigation, for both plaintiffs and defendants, on both public and private construction projects. Mr. Mattia has also lectured for Lorman Educational Service.

MARVIN L. SCHECHTER, ESQ.

Mr. Schechter has been practicing construction law for over 40 years and is the founding and managing partner of Tunstead and Schechter. Mr. Schechter is a graduate of the City College School of Technology, where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering, and Brooklyn Law School where he received a Juris Doctor degree. He worked as a civil engineer and designer for a consulting engineering firm and then as a technical editor for the American Society of Civil Engineers. After his admission to the bar, he formed his own law firm concentrating on construction litigation and later joined with Richard Tunstead to form Tunstead & Schechter. Mr. Schechter is admitted to practice before the Federal and State Courts of New York and the U.S. Court of Federal Claims. He has a wide range of experience performing legal services for a cross-section of the construction industry, lectures regularly to contractors and management groups throughout the country, and has taught construction law at New York University and the City College School of Technology. He has authored a monthly legal column and has had articles published in leading legal and construction periodicals. Mr. Schechter is a Life Member of the American Society of Civil Engineers. He performs legal services exclusively in the construction field in the areas of contract litigation, mediation, arbitration, negotiation, analysis of construction claims and surety law.

NORMAN D. ALVY, ESQ.

Mr. Alvy was a senior counsel with the firm of Tunstead & Schechter, Jericho, N.Y. He was a graduate of Cornell University, School of Industrial and Labor Relations and the State University of New York at Buffalo, School of Law. For over 35 years, he practiced in the construction law, government contracts, mechanic's lien law and surety field. He wrote numerous legal articles concerning construction law for such publications as the Nassau Lawyer; the Construction Company Strategist, Federal Publications, the ABA Public Contract Newsletter and the Journal of Construction Accounting and Taxation. He co-authored the Mechanic's Liens book of the New York Practical Skills Series for more than 25 years.
