Probate and Administration of Decedents' Estates

Jessica R. Amelar, Esq.
Arlene Harris, Esq.

2020–2021

Publisher's Note: As a result of the COVID crisis, Governor Cuomo has issued a number of Executive Orders that affect various deadlines and limitations periods, and the New York judicial districts have issued administrative orders that affect court operations and procedures. Practitioners are urged to keep abreast of continuing developments, including additional or extended Executive Orders and Court directives, by regularly visiting the Governor's Executive Orders web page, www.governor.ny.gov/executiveorders, the Unified Court System website, www.nycourts.gov, and the websites for the judicial districts and specific courts. Readers can also visit the NYSBA COVID-19 Information Center, nysba.org/covid-19-information-updates.

NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.
