Labor, Employment and Workers' Compensation Law

Monica R. Lenahan, Esq.

Laura H. Delaney, Esq.

Martin Minkowitz, Esq.

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207 or publications@nysba.org.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

LAURA H. DELANEY, ESQ.

Ms. Delaney became General Counsel of the Public Employment Relations Board in 2024. Before that time, she was senior counsel for the New York State United Teachers and worked for fifteen years representing public and private sector unions and their members on a wide range of labor and employment issues in state and federal court and administrative agencies.

MONICA R. LENAHAN, ESQ.

Ms. Lenahan is a partner at Whiteman Osterman & Hanna LLP. She joined the Firm in 2011 and is a member of Firm's Labor and Employment and Education Law practice groups. She represents public and private schools, colleges, and other employers in a wide range of labor, employment, and education law matters. She regularly counsels employers to help avoid legal issues, conducts confidential employee investigations, and defends employers in discrimination actions and other complex litigation. She negotiates collective bargaining agreements, and regularly drafts board resolutions, memoranda of agreement, policies, and regulations for employers. Ms. Lenahan has been a speaker at many continuing legal education and other training programs on a variety of school law and employment law topics. More information about her can be found here: <https://www.woh.com/attorneys/75/monica-r-lenahan/>.

MARTIN MINKOWITZ, ESQ.

Mr. Minkowitz practiced with the law firm of Stroock & Stroock & Lavan, concentrating in insurance regulation and workers' compensation regulatory practice. He was a partner from 1988 to 2009. He was Deputy Superintendent and General Counsel of the New York State Insurance Department for seven years; prior to that, he was General Counsel of the New York State Workers' Compensation Board for five years. He has a Master of Laws degree from Brooklyn Law School. He served as the Treasurer of the New York Bar Foundation and as a member of its Board. He is a former chair of the General Practice Section and has chaired many NYSBA committees as well, including the Committee on Professional Discipline and the Committee on the Unlawful Practice of Law. He was a member of the NYSBA's House of Delegates and was a member of the Board of Directors of the New York County Lawyers' Association.

Mr. Minkowitz writes the Commentaries to McKinney's New York Workers' Compensation Law and has often been cited by the Appellate Division and the Court of Appeals in New York. He was a member of the Recodification of the New York Workers' Compensation Law Project. He has written extensively on a broad range of topics, and his articles have appeared in several American Bar Association, Practising Law Institute and New York State Bar Association publications. He is also the co-author of several legal texts, including Workers' Compensation Insurance Law and Practice: The Next Generation, and the author of West's New York Practice Series, New York Workers' Compensation. He is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Brooklyn Law School and New York Law School, where he teaches workers' compensation. He has been a frequent lecturer on a variety of topics for the American Bar Association; Continuing Legal Education programs of the New York State Bar Association; the Practising Law Institute; and numerous professional, labor and industry organizations.
