New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207 or publications@nysba.org.

CHARLES E. BINDER, ESQ.

Mr. Binder, of the Law Offices of Charles E. Binder and Harry J. Binder, LLP, works almost exclusively on Social Security disability cases at both the administrative and federal court levels. A graduate of Georgetown University Law School, Mr. Binder was an officer and member of the Executive Committee of the National Organization of Social Security Claimants' Representatives (NOSSCR) for many years, as well as a past president of the New York Social Security Bar Association. He has lectured on behalf of the New York State Bar Association for its Continuing Legal Education programs covering Social Security disability, as well as at many NOSSCR conventions, conferences on Social Security disability organized by the Practising Law Institute, before hospital staffs, vocational rehabilitation specialists and various foundations dealing with the problems of the elderly and disabled. He has twice lectured for the pro bono panel of the Eastern District of New York concerning Social Security disability cases from the plaintiff's perspective. He has also testified before the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Ways and Means Social Security Subcommittee about the Social Security Disability Program.

DANIEL S. JONES, ESQ.

Daniel S. Jones serves of counsel to the law offices of Charles E. Binder and Harry J. Binder, LLP. He is a member of the state bars in New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. Mr. Jones has practiced exclusively in the area of federal court appeals of Social Security disability claims for over a decade, having worked on over a thousand cases on briefs filed in every District Court representing all 50 states as well as the Districts for the District of Columbia and the District of Puerto Rico, having drafted briefs filed in all 12 of the Circuit Courts that hear appeals of Social Security claims as an attorney during that time. He is currently in good standing as a member of the United States Supreme Court, the United States Courts of Appeals for the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, and Eleventh Circuits, and the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, the Middle and Eastern Districts of Pennsylvania, the District of New Jersey, the Eastern District of Michigan, and the Southern District of Texas. He has written for the newsletter issued by the Social Security Section of the Federal Bar Association. He is also a member of the National Organization of Social Security Claimant's Representatives (NOSSCR). Prior to becoming an attorney, Mr. Jones spent eight years working as a non-attorney representative of claimants appearing before the Social Security Administration at all levels of the administrative process.
