NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.

JESSICA R. AMELAR, ESQ.

Jessica R. Amelar is a principal court attorney in the Surrogate's Court of New York County. She has chaired the Continuing Legal Education Committee of the Trusts and Estates Law Section of the NYSBA, served on the Association's Committee on Continuing Legal Education, and was a presenter at the 2015 Annual Meeting. She is the 2018 recipient of the Law Secretaries & Law Assistants Collegium, Inc., Distinguished Service Award.

LAURA M. BRANCATO, ESQ.

Laura M. Brancato, Esq. is a Senior Attorney with the White Plains, New York law firm, Littman Krooks LLP. She is a Member of the New York State Bar Association and a Member of the New York State Guardian Committee, and was named Vice Chair of the Guardianship Committee of the Elder Law Section of the New York State Bar Association. Laura focuses her practice on elder law, Medicaid planning, estate planning and litigation and special education advocacy. She has represented clients in Article 81 and 17-A proceedings in Queens, Kings, Rockland and New York Counties, and has close to 20 years' experience litigating matters relating to these issues in New York State Supreme Court, Surrogate's Court and at all levels of administrative hearings. Prior to her position at Littman Krooks LLP, Laura was the Village Prosecutor for the Village of Larchmont, opened her own firm to represent clients in estate and elder law planning, managed the Medicaid Litigation Unit at the New York law firm Connors & Sullivan, PLLC and was an Assistant District Attorney with the Bronx District Attorney's office, where she was the founding member of the Bronx County DNA Bio-tracks Unit, in addition to trying cases in the Gang/Major Case Unit.

Laura received her undergraduate degree from Loyola University in Maryland where she studied political science and business. She received her JD from St. John's University School of Law, where she held an executive board position on the Moot Court Honor Society and conducted pre-trial hearings in State Supreme Court as a law student through the prosecutor's clinic.

Laura particularly enjoys working with clients who are accessing Medicaid for care at home or in a facility. She has advocated for clients in various arenas to assure they remain safe and well-cared for in the later stages of their lives.

Laura lives in Westchester with her family, including her 3 children. She works actively in her community, including spearheading a local project to revitalize her local playground in an effort to make it ADA accessible and inclusive for all children.

In addition, Laura conducts seminars, webinars and other informational meetings regarding Guardianship and related matters. She has authored a number of elder law articles, including most recently "The Growing Crisis in Aging: Complex Challenges Exist with Long-Term Options."
