

NEW YORK LAWYERS' PRACTICAL SKILLS SERIES

2023–2024

Criminal Law and Practice

Jay Shapiro, Esq.

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207 or publications@nysba.org.

JAY SHAPIRO, ESQ.

Jay Shapiro is New York attorney with over 40 years' experience as a litigator in criminal and civil practice. A prosecutor for two decades who focused on white collar crimes, until January 2023 he represented clients in complex civil litigation and investigations, including corporate internal investigations and criminal and regulatory enforcement. From February 2023 until June 2023 he was a Fulbright U.S. Scholar in Albania, teaching future judges and prosecutors, as well as law students. He is a member of the Executive Committee of the Criminal Justice Section of the New York State Bar Association and the editor of the Section's newsletter.

Mr. Shapiro began his legal career in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office as a prosecutor for eight years and later spent 12 years with the King's County District Attorney's Office, becoming the Deputy District Attorney in charge of the Rackets Division, before going into private practice. As a prosecutor, Mr. Shapiro was one of the first participants in the federal Electronic Crimes Task Force, which launched some of the earliest investigations into cybercrimes. He now advises clients on the investigation of data breaches, computer trespass and best policies concerning employee utilization of personal electronic devices for business purposes.

Mr. Shapiro has tried more than 35 cases in state and federal courts in New York and has also appeared before courts in California, Florida, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Washington. He has represented clients in relation to investigations conducted by federal and state authorities, including the Department of Justice, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Internal Revenue Service, the Food and Drug Administration, state prosecutors, and numerous city and state regulatory agencies.

Mr. Shapiro is the author of a number of treatises relating to criminal practice and constitutional rights. He has been recognized for his work with the New York City Police and Fire Departments. Mr. Shapiro is a member of the Society of Benchers of Case Western Reserve University School of Law.
