New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.

ROSE MARY BAILLY, ESQ.

Rose Mary Bailly staffs the Institute for Aging and Disability Law of the Government Law Center of Albany Law School. For sixteen years she was the Executive Director of the New York State Law Revision Commission. Rose Mary Bailly's work includes research and writing on elder and disability law. Ms. Bailly has written and lectured widely on the topic of guardianship law; most notably she is author of McKinney's Practice Commentaries for Article 81 of the Mental Hygiene Law and powers of attorney governed by the General Obligations Law. She is also an Associate Editor of Guardianship Practice in New York State (Robert Abrams, Esq., Editor-in-Chief, NYSBA 1998, Supp. 2004).

Ms. Bailly is an active member of the New York State Bar Association. She is a fellow of the Brookdale Center on Aging at Hunter College. Ms. Bailly received her law degree from Fordham University School of Law, where she was Commentary Editor of the law review.

LEONA BEANE, ESQ.

Leona Beane is Professor Emeritus of Law at Baruch College (City University) in New York City, where she taught for 21 years. Professor Beane received her B.B.A. and M.B.A. from the City College of New York, M.S. from Columbia University and J.D. from New York Law School. She has been a practicing attorney involved in estates, guardians and A.D.R., and is an active member of several bar associations. She has chaired and/or lectured at several programs over the years for the New York State Bar Association: "Drafting Corporate Documents for the Close Corporation," "Forming and Advising Businesses" and others. She chaired and lectured at programs on guardians and Article 81 of the Mental Hygiene Law, having lectured in different parts of the state for several different Bar Associations. Ms. Beane lectured at several judicial seminars on guardianship topics, at the Judicial Institute in April 2003, and the Guardianship Roundtable in May 2011. She served on the Board of Advisors to the Vera Guardianship Project and assisted in the initial training of its staff.

She is a past president of both the National Association of Women Lawyers and the Association of Small Claim Arbitrators, and is an arbitrator and mediator for the U.S. District Court, Eastern and Southern Districts. She is an arbitrator for the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). She is a mediator in the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court, New York County; the Bankruptcy Court, Eastern and Southern Districts; the EEOC and Safe Horizon, in addition to several other forums. She had been Chair of the Arbitration and ADR Committee of the New York County Lawyers' Association for four years. She has served on the Executive Committee of the Dispute Resolution Section of the New York State Bar Association for 10 years; and has been chair of its Committee on Mediating Trusts, Estates, Guardianships and Elderly Disputes. She has been a member of the New York chapter of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals.

She has published several articles on various legal topics, including partnership law, contracts, guardians, guardians ad litem and mediation relating to estate matters and guardianship. She also is a chapter author and an Associate Editor of Guardianship Practice in New York State (NYSBA 1998). She has also organized CLE programs on "The Advantages of Mediating Trusts and Estates Disputes" for the NYSBA.

LISSETT C. FERREIRA, ESQ.

Lisett Ferreira is a highly experienced elder and disabilities law practitioner with a focus on guardianships, estate planning, asset protection, trusts, Medicaid, and special needs planning. Ms. Ferreira is a Partner and chair of the Elder & Family Law practice groups at Meenan & Associates, LLC. She received her B.A. with Honors from Brown University and her J.D. from Fordham University School of Law, where she served as Symposium Editor of the Law Review, was selected as a Crowley International Human Rights Scholar, received the Murray Magna Cum Laude Public Service Award, was inducted into the Order of the Coif Honor Society, and placed on the Dean's List. She is a recipient of a prestigious Fulbright Scholarship, awarded to her to conduct research in Mozambique on issues related to gender and development.

Ms. Ferreira has experience working in legal services, the judiciary, and private practice. In law school, she summered at White & Case and interned at Safe Horizon Domestic Violence Legal Project. Following law school, she served as a law graduate at The Legal Aid Society. She then served for nearly a decade as senior court attorney to Hon. Laura Visitación-Lewis, Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, who presided over a matrimonial part and then a guardianship part. Ms. Ferreira also managed a successful solo law practice prior to joining Meenan & Associates, LLC, a boutique law firm that handles a variety of civil matters, in 2019.

Ms. Ferreira serves in leadership positions in the New York Women's Bar Association (NYWBA) as an Executive Board member, Officer, co-chair of the Elder Law & Disabilities and Long-Term Finance Planning Committees, and member of the Judiciary Committee. As co-chair of the Elder Law & Disabilities Committee, she inaugurated a highly successful bi-monthly "Lunch and Learn Elder Law" speaker series that attracts experienced practitioners to speak on topics of interest to the elder law bar. She also participates in the statewide Women's Bar Association of the State of New York (WBASNY) as a delegate to the Board on behalf of the NYWBA chapter. She serves on the Board of the Puerto Rican Bar Association and is a member of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys. In addition, she is a former member of the Small Law Firms Committee of the New York City Bar Association (NYCBA) and former chair of one of its lawyers' networking groups.

Ms. Ferreira has organized numerous programs and lectured widely at various bar associations, including the NYSBA, NYCBA and NYWBA, as well as for nationally recognized-CLE providers such as Lawline and Rossdale. She is also active in the Guardianship Diversity Initiative, a collaboration between NYWBA and the Franklin H. Williams Judicial Commission under the leadership of Hon. Lisa A. Sokoloff, J.S.C. This well-received project aims to increase diversity in the pool of people eligible for court appointments in guardianship proceedings.

Ms. Ferreira has published in the Fordham Law Review and the New York State Bar Association Elder Law & Special Needs Journal. In 2020, she was recognized as an Emerging Leader by WBASNY. She has been selected as a New York Metro Super Lawyer in Elder Law every year since 2019. In 2017, she was selected as a New York Metro Rising Star in Elder Law.

She lives in Brooklyn, New York with her husband, Josh, who is a high school teacher, and her two teenage sons, Nicholas and Ethan.
