2020–2021

Publisher's Note: As a result of the COVID crisis, Governor Cuomo has issued a number of Executive Orders that affect various deadlines and limitations periods, and the New York judicial districts have issued administrative orders that affect court operations and procedures. Practitioners are urged to keep abreast of continuing developments, including additional or extended Executive Orders and Court directives, by regularly visiting the Governor’s Executive Orders web page, www.governor.ny.gov/executiveorders, the Unified Court System website, www.nycourts.gov, and the websites for the judicial districts and specific courts. Readers can also visit the NYSBA COVID-19 Information Center, nysba.org/covid-19-information-updates.
New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client’s or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.

KENNETH M. SCHWARTZ, ESQ.

Mr. Schwartz is a Senior Attorney with the firm of Sciocchetti Abbott Newkirk, PLLC in Latham, New York and was formerly a principal of Farer & Schwartz, P.C. and was formerly a principal of Worldwide Abstract Services, Inc. A graduate of Capital University School of Law, Mr. Schwartz is a member of the New York State and Albany County Bar Associations, the New York State Title Attorney Bar Association; and the Professional Abstractors Association of Upstate New York. He has lectured on topics such as residential real estate and contracts, title examination and title insurance issues, boundary line disputes for the NYSBA, New York State Land Title Association, Albany County Bar Association, New York State Legislature and Executive Staff, Lorman Educational Services, and National Business Institute. He authored the chapter “Residential Real Estate Practice” in NYSBA’s Pitfalls of Practice.

While in the private practice of law, Ms. Meadow concentrated in real property transactions. She authored numerous real estate articles and appeared on the General Practice “Hot Tips” panel at the New York State Bar Association’s Annual Meeting. She presented Continuing Legal Education credit programs on real estate and title matters at Pace Law School as well as to the Westchester Women’s Bar Association, the Westchester County Bar Association, the New York County Bar Association and the National Law Foundation. Ms. Meadow authored the residential real property text and forms of the New York Lawyer’s Deskbook and Formbook for more than 10 years.

Before entering private practice, she was a staff attorney in the Enforcement Division of the Securities and Exchange Commission’s New York regional office. She was a Phi Beta Kappa, cum laude, graduate of Hunter College, Class of 1959, and a graduate of Columbia Law School, Class of 1962, where she was a recipient of a Moot Court scholarship.

She was listed in Who’s Who in American Women and Who’s Who in American Law. She was a 1989 recipient of a Westchester County Woman of Achievement Award and a Certificate of Special Congressional Recognition from Congresswoman Nita M. Lowey for “outstanding and invaluable service to the community.”

A founding member of the New York State Women’s Bar Association, Westchester County. Ms. Meadow was its first recording secretary and created its annual golf outing, which she chaired for six years.
