New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207 or publications@nysba.org.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

FRANCIS J. SMITH, ESQ.

Mr. Smith joined McNamee Lochner P.C. in 1988 and was a principal in that firm from 1994 until 2020. In 2020, he joined the law firm of O'Connell & Aronowitz as a principal. He received a J.D. degree, cum laude, from the Albany Law School of Union University in 1980, and a B.A. degree, cum laude, from Siena College in 1977. Prior to entering private practice, Mr. Smith spent eight years with the New York State Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Third Department, the last six of which were spent as confidential law clerk to the Honorable A. Franklin Mahoney, Presiding Justice of that court.

Mr. Smith's practice is concentrated in the area of appellate practice as well as all forms of state and federal court litigation representing creditors and lenders. His practice also includes commercial mortgage foreclosures and representation of secured creditors in Chapter 11 commercial bankruptcies.
