Kelly A. Librera, Esq.
Gary P. Shaffer, Esq.

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207 or publications@nysba.org.

LEONA BEANE, ESQ.

Leona Beane is Professor Emeritus of Law at Baruch College (City University) in New York City, where she taught for 21 years. Professor Beane received her B.B.A. and M.B.A. from the City College of New York, M.S. from Columbia University and J.D. from New York Law School. She has been a practicing attorney involved in estates, guardians and A.D.R., and is an active member of several bar associations. She has chaired and/or lectured at several programs over the years for the New York State Bar Association: “Drafting Corporate Documents for the Close Corporation,” “Forming and Advising Businesses” and others. She chaired and lectured at programs on guardians and Article 81 of the Mental Hygiene Law, having lectured in different parts of the state for several different Bar Associations. Ms. Beane lectured at several judicial seminars on guardianship topics, at the Judicial Institute in April 2003, and the Guardianship Roundtable in May 2011. She served on the Board of Advisors to the Vera Guardianship Project and assisted in the initial training of its staff.

She is a past president of both the National Association of Women Lawyers and the Association of Small Claim Arbitrators, and is an arbitrator and mediator for the U.S. District Court, Eastern and Southern Districts. She is an arbitrator for the Financial Industry Regulatory Agency (FINRA). She is a mediator in the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court, New York County; the Bankruptcy Court, Eastern and Southern Districts; the EEOC and Safe Horizon, in addition to several other forums. She had been Chair of the Arbitration and ADR Committee of the New York County Lawyers’ Association for four years. She has served on the Executive Committee of the Dispute Resolution Section of the New York State Bar Association for 10 years, and has been chair of its Committee on Mediating Trusts, Estates, Guardianships and Elderly Disputes. She has been a member of the New York chapter of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals.

She has published several articles on various legal topics, including partnership law, contracts, guardians, guardians ad litem and mediation relating to estate matters and guardianship. She also is a chapter author and an Associate Editor of Guardianship Practice in New York State (NYSBA 1998). She has also organized CLE programs on “The Advantages of Mediating Trusts and Estates Disputes” for the NYSBA.

KELLY A. LIBRERA, ESQ.

Kelly Librera is a partner in Winston & Strawn’s New York office. Ms. Librera represents clients in international arbitration matters throughout the world. She also represents clients in complex commercial litigation in federal and state courts throughout the United States, with a focus on cases involving allegations of financial and consumer fraud. Significant recent representations include International Center for Dispute Resolution arbitrations on behalf of a United Arab Emirates luxury jewelry distributor and a Japanese manufacturer and supplier of earth-moving equipment. Ms. Librera’s clients include major international banks, private equity funds, and global insurers.

GARY P. SHAFFER, ESQ.

Gary Shaffer has a private mediation practice that focuses on commercial, employment, divorce, and personal injury matters. He received his B.A. with honors from Harvard University and his J.D. with honors from the Cardozo School of Law, where he also served on the Law Review. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association’s Dispute Resolution Section and co-chair of the Section’s Mediation Committee. He is also a former board member of the New York State Council on Divorce

Mediation. Prior to focusing exclusively on mediation, he was an attorney with the New York City Law Department, where he litigated land use, employment, personal injury, and multi-party or class action matters in the state and federal courts. Among other things, he served as lead trial counsel for New York City in the World Trade Center litigation that arose from the 9/11 attacks. In addition, he was the Assistant Commissioner for Regulatory Policy and Enforcement at the New York City Department of Buildings.

Mr. Shaffer has been appointed to several court mediation panels, including those for the United States Second Circuit Court of Appeals, the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, the Commercial Division of Supreme Court, New York County, and the New York State Appellate Division, First Department. He has written and lectured on various aspects of mediation (in particular, on the success of automatic court-annexed mediation programs throughout the country), trained others in mediation, and co-chaired the 2017 New York State Bar Association's Annual Meeting of the Dispute Resolution Section. In addition to being co-author of Mediation for the New York State Bar Association Practical Skills Series, he writes a regular blog about different topics relating to mediation, which can be viewed on his website, www.shaffermediation.com.
