

NEW YORK LAWYERS' PRACTICAL SKILLS SERIES

Mortgage Foreclosures

Francis J. Smith, Esq.

2020–2021

Publisher's Note: As a result of the COVID crisis, Governor Cuomo has issued a number of Executive Orders that affect various deadlines and limitations periods, and the New York judicial districts have issued administrative orders that affect court operations and procedures. Practitioners are urged to keep abreast of continuing developments, including additional or extended Executive Orders and Court directives, by regularly visiting the Governor's Executive Orders web page, www.governor.ny.gov/executiveorders, the Unified Court System website, www.nycourts.gov, and the websites for the judicial districts and specific courts. Readers can also visit the NYSBA COVID-19 Information Center, nysba.org/covid-19-information-updates.

*This monograph was originally prepared by the late Marvin R. Baum, Esq. The 2003 and 2004 supplements were reviewed by Joseph M. Gaug, Esq.; Francis J. Smith has been the update author since 2005.

NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. FRANCIS J. SMITH, ESQ.

Mr. Smith is a member of the law firm of O'Connell & Aronowitz and has been in private practice since 1988. He received a J.D. degree, cum laude, from the Albany Law School of Union University in 1980, and a B.A. degree, cum laude, from Siena College in 1977. Prior to entering private practice, Mr. Smith spent eight years with the New York State Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Third Department, the last six of which were spent as confidential law clerk to the Honorable A. Franklin Mahoney, Presiding Justice of that court.

Mr. Smith's practice is concentrated in the area of appellate practice as well as all forms of state and federal court litigation representing creditors and lenders. His practice also includes commercial mortgage foreclosures and representation of secured creditors in Chapter 11 commercial bankruptcies.
