Appellate Practice Section
COS Report for June Meeting
By: Kimberly Jones—Section Chair

Council of Sections,

Thank you for inviting the Appellate Practice Section to report on its work this year. The Section successfully advanced its goals through adaptive and flexible planning to conquer the unique challenges of the past Bar year. We were not deterred by Covid protocols changing plans at the last minute and easily transitioned from in-person meetings to virtual programming as needed. This is all thanks to our Section members, Officers, Executive Council, Committee Leaders, Judicial and Bar Liaisons, and, most of all, Section administrator Cheri Wright.

One fantastic example of this flexibility is in the work of our Programs and Outreach Committees. Led by Outreach Committee Chair Mary Walter and Vice Chair Alexis Fields, the Section hosted a lovely Autumn with APS Virtual Cocktail Class featuring special guest mixologist and Florida Bar President Mike Tanner. Thank you again to President Tanner for teaching us how to make a delightful Fall concoction. Moving forward, the Section is hosting another amazing Dessert Reception at the Bar's Annual Convention. Desserts and dancing are the perfect end to a productive day of meetings and events. This year's theme is London Calling. We hope to see everyone in person to celebrate on Thursday, June 23 beginning at 9 pm in the Bonnet Creek Ballroom II to indulge in the amazing reception organized by Programs Committee Chairs Diane DeWolf and Lindsey Lawton.

The Annual Convention also is a platform for the Section's Annual New and Returning Member Orientation. To prepare new members for the APS, we are hosting a virtual meeting to introduce Section members to our Committees. This event is a unique opportunity to learn about the Section and become involved in our many incredible programs. The New and Returning Member Orientation is scheduled for Tuesday, June 21 at 12 pm and is an exclusively virtual event via Zoom prior to meeting at Annual Convention.

Speaking of incredible, our Retreat Committee, led by the Section's Chair Elect, the Honorable Carrie Ann Wozniak, is planning an incredible international adventure in London for Fall 2022. We will make up for the past years of virtual meetings with an educational, insightful, and exciting Retreat that builds on the Section's goals of planning and development for the future.

The Section took an active role in commenting on the proposed elimination of the Bar's Certification Committees' discretion to waive certain requirements. Immediate Past Chair Chris Donovan worked with several other Sections to explain the concerns with the proposed rule changes, and presented oral argument on behalf of our Section and other sections in December 2021. Since then, the Florida Supreme Court has rejected the requested amendments without prejudice to the Board of Governors proposing them again after conferring with the Sections.

We also maintained our partnership with the Government Lawyer Section, with almost 100 joint members. This program features the Section's goal of interconnectivity with other Bar Sections.

Another primary goal is education and skill-building for our Members. Our CLE Committee continues to crush that goal, offering innovative and timely programs, like (1) the ten-part monthly audio webcast series that brings in over 100 participants per program, (2) Let's Talk Tech: The Best Hardware and Software for Your Appellate Practice, (3) Advanced Appellate Practice and Board Certification Review 2022, (4) Practicing Before the Florida First District Court of Appeal 2022, (5) The Ins and Outs of Rule 9.130: A Lawyer's Guide to Non-Final Appeals Parts I and II, (6) Practicing Before the Florida Supreme Court 2022. The Section also offered a free CLE jointly with the Government Lawyers Section on Navigating Your First Appeal, with over 220 registrants. A standing ovation to Committee Chair Elaine Walter, Vice Chair Joe Eagleton, and Web Co-Chairs Allen Bonner, Geneva Fountain, and Eric Levine for creating exceptional learning opportunities for our members and the Bar.

Our Pro Bono Committee's partnership with the Statewide Guardian ad Litem provided countless hours of pro bono appellate advocacy. We partnered again with GAL to offer a free, five-hour CLE program titled Winning Your Appeal at Trial, which is available on GAL's YouTube channel for free credit. We are proud and excited that four Section members were recognized by the Florida Supreme Court for their pro bono efforts: Jamie Moses, Bryan Gowdy, Ryan Tyler, and Morgan Weinstein. We also have continued our expansion of pro bono services to include immigration appellate referrals from the Catholic Legal Services, assisting veterans in the Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims, and appeals concerning family law, foreclosure, and small-claims cases referred to the Section by legal aid organizations around the State and the Florida Supreme Court and District Courts. Thank you to Chair Kimberly Berman, Vice Chair Samuel Alexander, and GAL liaison Thomasina Moore for their service and commitment to Pro Bono.

Thanks to Chair Tom Seider, the Publication Committee fulfilled the Section's commitment to publishing content that educates and informs members about interesting topics in appellate practice. Please check out The Record, led by Editor Courtney Fernald, which you can subscribe to at therecord.flabarappellate.org, for judicial profiles, and news on appellate practice issues. We also publish substantive articles in every edition of the Florida Bar Journal, thanks to Editor Heather Kolinsky. And the Self-Represented Litigant Committee, under the leadership of Co-Chairs Chance Lyman, Stephen Senn, and Sandra Ramirez is working on an update to The Pro Se Appellate Handbook: Representing Yourself on Appeal, a unique service project that helps Pro Se parties navigate appeals.

Led by Chairs Jared Krukar and the Honorable Stephanie Ray, and Co-Vice Chairs Chelsea Kirkpatrick and Laura Roe, the Diversity & Inclusion Committee partnered with The Appellate Project to bring in two student members to the Section. This partnership helps empower law students of color to thrive in appellate practice. The Committee also continued working on the Student Education Initiative, which is a multi-module pipeline project aimed at high school, college, and law school students of diverse backgrounds throughout the state.

Chaired by Jamie Moses and Brandon Breslow, the Fellows Program is thrilled to work with Fellows Chelsea Kirkpatrick and Dayna Maeder, introducing them to appellate practice and providing hands-on appellate experience with the assistance of assigned mentors. The Program has been very successful, and will be announcing the 2022-2023 Fellow at our Executive Council Meeting on Thursday, June 23 at 10:15 am.

The Communications Committee, chaired by Dineen Wasylik and Morgan Weinstein, facilitated a modern and streamlined website update and curated the Section's social media presence. The social media efforts and website updates provided a direct interaction and relationship with our Membership to highlight Section activities and promote connectivity.

Similarly, the newly named Advocacy Committee (formally Legislative), chaired by Karla Ellis and Thomasina Moore, monitored Legislative developments and potential changes to appellate practice, to ensure the Section maintains its goals of exploring ways to inform section members and the public about those issues, and advising the Section when Section advocacy may be appropriate.

None of this success would be possible without the dedication of our Section officers: Hon. Carrie Ann Wozniak, Chair-Elect; Kansas Gooden, Treasurer; Courtney Brewer, Secretary; and Chris Donovan, Immediate Past Chair. We also thank again our amazing Section administrator, Cheri Wright.

Two Florida law students are currently in TAP and they are both participating in the Section. The Section's Officers voted to cover their Section memberships.

If anyone in the Section wants to help bring TAP students into the Section's fold, please reach out to Jared or Sarah.

Oral arguments are scheduled in February on case numbers SC21-537 regarding amendments to rules of criminal procedure and rule 9.142 governing postconviction in death penalty; and SC21-990 regarding amendments proposed by the workgroup on continuity in court proceedings during and after COVID-19.

D. Council of Sections – Nick Shannin
