

GREGG RILEY MORTON is General Counsel and Chief Hearing Officer at the Public Employees Relations Commission (PERC). Prior to serving as General Counsel, Gregg was a hearing officer and deputy general counsel with PERC. During his tenure with PERC, he has lectured extensively and written numerous articles on labor and administrative law. Before coming to PERC 2012, Gregg was chief counsel for the Division of Finance at the Office of Financial Regulation. He started his legal career as a staff attorney for Chief Justice Harry Lee Anstead at the Florida Supreme Court.

Gregg is past Chair of the Labor & Employment Law Section, Animal Law Section, and Council of Sections of The Florida Bar. He currently serves on the executive council of several sections and the Education Law Committee of The Florida Bar. Gregg is Board Certified in State and Federal Government and Administrative Practice (SFGAP) and serves on SFGAP Committee. He is a co-author of the Administrative Adjudication Chapter in Florida Administrative Practice (15th ed., The Florida Bar 2025). He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Ohio University and graduated with honors from the University of Florida, College of Law, with his J.D. in 2000.

