

Creating a Welcoming and Supportive Space for Diverse Populations

Program Description:

Please join us for an opportunity to earn ANCC Nurse Continuing Professional Development (NCPD) contact hours and learn how to welcome diverse populations into your setting, followed by our Spring APNA New England Chapter Business Meeting

Target Audience:

Psychiatric mental health nurses, advanced practice nurses and other mental health professionals

Keynote Speakers:

Aron A. King, MS, RN

Implicit Bias and Microaggressions: What are they? How do they impact the care environment?

Mr. King is an Assistant Nurse Manager who is dedicated to patient advocacy and wellness promotion. His research using the Implicit Association Test, a validated tool used to assess implicit bias, has uncovered that many healthcare providers hold unconscious pro-White/anti-Black racial bias.

Dallas Ducar, MSN, RN, PMHNP-BC, CNL

Best Practices in Affirming and Empowering Mental Healthcare for the LGBTQIA+ Individual.

Dallas Ducar is the founding CEO of Transhealth Northampton and is a dedicated clinician and advocate to providing novel gender-affirming care.
