

He Stands Outside the Doors We've Closed

1. He stands out - side the doors we've closed and gent - ly
2. And when we wel - come him in - side, and bid him
3. In break - ing bread and drink - ing wine our hearts are 4. When hos - pi - tal - i - ty is shown, then kind - ness knocks, then waits. His faith - ful pre - sence has dis - closed the join to eat, the in - vi - ta - tion to a - bide will strange - ly warmed. His Word and wit - ness now com - bine, with must en - sue. And when we are for jus - tice known, our hope his love cre - ates, the hope his love cre - ates. make our joy com - plete, will make our joy com - plete.

lives and faith trans - formed, with lives and faith trans - formed.
life be - gins a - new, our life be - gins a - new.
