 3. O Lord, you spoke through proph - ets and told us what you seek;
 4. We hear your won - drous prom - ise, that as we fol - low you,

We pray and take an of - fering; we seek to know your ways.
 on Wednes - day gun - shots thun - der, and so the days go by.
 for this is faith - ful wor - ship, to help the poor and weak, you'll make of us a gar - den to bless the world a - new.

We love each morn - ing ser - vice yet won - der when it's through:
 In - dif - ferent, e - ven scorn - ing, we turn from neigh - bors' pain, to work to bring your jus - tice, to give the hun - gry bread.
 We trust what you have spo - ken, that joy and wor - ship meet

Lord, did you e - ven no - tice our hon - or - ing of you?
 and then on Sun - day morn - ing we wor - ship you a - gain.
 In this we hon - or Sab - bath, when all your world is fed.
 when we re - pair the bro - ken, when we re - store the streets.
