1. What's this fire that scours the na - tions, Light - Life blaz - ing in its scope?
2. From Your Son the fire is blaz - ing: fire on earth with fire from heav'n.
3. What's this oth - er, ri - val fire, — sprung from rage and faith's con - tempt?
4. When we walk thro' flames in this Way, with its fur - nace-fired — strife,
5. When the flames that fired so man - y fin'l - ly flick - er to their close,

God, You fire up cast - off kin - dling, lift de - spair with flames of hope.
As we yield to Spir - it sua - sion, we be - come light, salt and leav'n.
"Mar - tyrs" burn with "un - be - liev - ers", stok - ing wild - fires scarce - ly dreamt.
We'll not fear Your fire the next time, when Lake Fire is drenched by life.
we'll thank You for those who fired us, whose spent ash - es now re - pose.

Is the light that sparked cre - a - tion, like the fire at Chur - ch's dawn?
Is it hell - or heav - en - fire — when we're judged and pur - i - fied?
Christ, You cen - sure venge - ful fire - storms. Fire from heav - en saves, not kills;
Why do fire - brands slip to fring - es, push - ing for their sep - 'rate craze?
Dou - ble - edged, death - and life - deal - ing, man - y blaz - es light the Way.

Caught up in the trans - for - ma - tion, to that blaze we're sure - ly drawn.
Love for You and one an - oth - er, are the out - comes that de - cide.
"Turn your sword in, grim Bar - ab - bas, wel - come Me now, as God wills."
Fire - Ten - der combs the mar - gins, prod - ding coals to join one blaze.
We will be con - sumed in off - ring, heads, hearts, hands, un - til Your Day.
